Narrative

On May 19, 2014, I (Jeff Port) performed a complaint investigation (C-2014-39-P) at property owned by Brian Page and Tina Page located just west of the intersection of Fantasy Lane and Hampton Road near Chillicothe, IL. I had previously inspected this site on December 12, 2013 in response to complaint number C-2013-079-P. This investigation revealed violations of the Illinois Environmental Protection Act and the Regulations. A follow-up inspection on March 31, 2014 resolved the violations observed on December 12, 2013. The current complaint alleges that the respondent has burned and buried waste on the site.

I arrived at the site at 9:55 AM. The weather was overcast and cool, approximately 63 °F. The complainants were present upon my arrival. I introduce myself to the complainants and we then proceeded to the area where the complainants stated that waste had been burned and buried. As we approached the area, I observed piles of concrete that were not present during my last inspection. According to the complainants, the concrete is being used to cover up where waste has been buried. The concrete is seen in photographs P1 through P3 and P8 through P10. I additionally observed two areas where demolition debris had been piled up along with landscape waste. Photographs P4 through P7 and P11 show these piles. After photographing the site, I left at approximately 10:35 AM.

Photograph locations are depicted on the accompanying site map. Based upon this inspection, the following violations were observed and are indicated on the accompanying checklist.

1. Pursuant to Section 12(a) of the Act states that no person shall cause or threaten or allow the discharge of any contaminants into the environment in any State so as to cause or tend to cause water pollution in Illinois, either alone or in combination with matter from other sources, or so as to violate regulations or standards adopted by the Pollution Control Board under this Act.

A violation of Section 12(a) of the [Illinois] Environmental Protection Act (415 ILCS 5/12(a)) is alleged for the following reason: Brian Page and Tina Page, as owners and operators, caused or allowed the deposition of contaminants upon the land that would tend to cause water pollution.
