LaDonna discovered a typo in the rule. I checked the agency comments and it was correct there. Somehow something got struck that should have been left. How can this most easily be corrected? thanks

Have you looked at the final version of the rule? I noticed a problem at 388(a)(2)(B). The reference in the first line to 386(a)(1)(B) (doesn't exist) should be 386(a)(2). This was a casualty of the reorganization of 388 – it looks like someone changed 388(a)(2) to 388(a)(1)(B) and did it for this 386 reference in error.
