HEARING OFFICER ORDER

On May 5, 2020, all parties participated in a telephonic status conference. The parties stated that discovery is proceeding. Respondent stated, however, that it may not be able to serve all the discovery responses by the due date of May 31, 2020, due to various reasons, including the state of the pandemic. Complainant stated it understood. The discovery schedule will be revisited at the next status conference if need be.

The other discussion that took place was complainant's motion to designate substitute witnesses and related responses/replies. Brief oral argument was entertained. I told the parties that I hope to rule before the next status conference.

The parties are directed to participate in a telephonic conference with the hearing officer on June 10, 2020, at 11:00 a.m. The complainants are directed to initiate the call with a call-in number.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
