ORDER OF THE BOARD (by M. Gibson):

On December 13, 2022, Paul Christian Pratapas (Mr. Pratapas) filed a citizen's complaint (Comp.) against DeJames Builders and the Mayor of Naperville, Steve Chirico. On January 19, 2023, Mayor Chirico filed a motion requesting that the Board not accept the complaint for failure to properly serve the complaint and dismiss the complaint on the grounds that it is frivolous (Mayor Chirico Mot.).

On June 1, 2023, the Board granted Mayor Chirico's motion to not accept the complaint for failure to properly serve the respondents, and directed Mr. Pratapas to file the required proof of service of the complaint on the respondents no later than July 3, 2023, or face dismissal of the complaint for failure to properly serve the respondents. See 35 Ill. Adm. Code 101.304(c), (d); see also 35 Ill. Adm. Code 103.204(a). On June 21, 2023, Mr. Pratapas filed an altered proof of service form indicating that he personally served something at "DeJames Local Office" and to "Julie Dumler".

A total of 219 days have elapsed since Mr. Pratapas initially filed the complaint with the Board. Additionally, the Board has already granted Mr. Pratapas an extension of 30 days to file the required proof of service. The Board notes that for this original complaint, Mr. Pratapas used a sample citizen complaint form, available on the Board's website. The instructions accompanying those forms include detailed steps on how to serve complaints on respondents in accordance with the Board's rules. IPCB Formal Complaint Package (IPCB Form. Comp. Pkg.), pp. 1-4. Mr. Pratapas checked on the form that the complaint would be served on the respondent by "[p]ersonal service and [Mr. Pratapas] will make the personal delivery. However, the affidavit of service is not available to me currently." Comp. at 10. To date, Mr. Pratapas has not filed an affidavit of service. See IPCB Form. Comp. Pkg. at 4.

Additionally, the Board's sample complaint form instructions inform potential filers of how to document service of a formal complaint. See IPCB Form. Comp. Pkg. at 4. For personal service:

Documentation of Service is either an affidavit of service (for a non-attorney’s use & must be notarized) or a certificate of service (for an attorney’s use) signed by the person who made the personal delivery. Either of these constitutes documentation of completed service.

However, if this signed affidavit or certificate is not available to you when you file the complaint, you must first provide—with the Formal Complaint filed with the Clerk—another form of Documentation of Service to prove that service had at least been initiated: an affidavit of service or a certificate of service describing how service had been initiated, but not yet completed. Then, when it becomes available to you, you must file the affidavit or certificate of service containing the signature of the person who made the personal delivery and identify the Formal Complaint to which the affidavit or certificate corresponds. See 35 Ill. Adm. Code 101.300(c)(1), 101.304(c)(2), (d)(1), 101.Appendix E. Id.

Mr. Pratapas did not file any notarized affidavit of service. Mr. Pratapas failed to file the required proof of service and documentation of service by the extended deadline of July 3, 2023. Because Mr. Pratapas failed to timely file the required proof of service of the complaint, the Board does not accept the complaint and the respondent’s motion to dismiss is moot. Therefore, the Board dismisses this case and closes the docket.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Section 41(a) of the Environmental Protection Act provides that final Board orders may be appealed directly to the Illinois Appellate Court within 35 days after the Board serves the order. 415 ILCS 5/41(a) (2022); see also 35 Ill. Adm. Code 101.300(d)(2), 101.906, 102.706. Illinois Supreme Court Rule 335 establishes filing requirements that apply when the Illinois Appellate Court, by statute, directly reviews administrative orders. 172 Ill. 2d R. 335. The Board’s procedural rules provide that motions for the Board to reconsider or modify its final orders may be filed with the Board within 35 days after the order is received. 35 Ill. Adm. Code 101.520; see also 35 Ill. Adm. Code 101.902, 102.700, 102.702. Filing a motion asking that the Board reconsider this final order is not a prerequisite to appealing the order. 35 Ill. Adm. Code 101.902.
