Good Afternoon Don:

I had a status hearing today with Mr. Halloran: He stated that my Fourth Motion to Compel Discovery and Sanctions was not the fourth time to ask for discovery interrogatories.

These are the dates I listed on the motion being contradicted by Mr. Halloran as follows, if you could please confirm you have these documents. Thank you.

Anna Andrushko

On June 04, 2024, Complainant's Interrogatories to Respondent were originally served.

On August 08, 2024, first set of deficient responses was received. Questions 4-16 are insufficient. Deficiencies are not justified, non-responsive, evades the question.

On November 18, 2024, Motion to Comply Discovery – Respondent's Interrogatories to Complainant was served.

On December 30, 2024, Respondent's Supplemental Reply to Petitioner's Motion to Comply with Petitioners' Request for Production was received. Second set of deficient responses was received.

On May 07, 2025, Revised Complainant's Interrogatories to Respondent & Request for Production was served. These interrogatories were both previous questions and additional questions.

On May 29, 2025, Respondent's Answer to Revised Complainant's Interrogatories was received.

Third set of deficient responses was received Questions are insufficient.
