MOTION TO COMPEL

Now comes City of Kankakee, a Municipal Corporation, (“City”), by and through its attorneys, L. Patrick Power and Kenneth A. Leshen, Assistant City Attorneys, and moves Illinois Pollution Control Board to compel the County of Kankakee to produce any and all invoices of Hinshaw & Culbertson which it sent as part of its representation of the County in the siting procedure which is the subject matter of this action and in support thereof, states as follows:

1. County of Kankakee was served with document requests, which included a demand for the invoices of Hinshaw & Culbertson referred to above.
2. That pursuant to an Order of this Court filed on April 17, 2003, Kankakee County was directed to produce said invoices.
3. That County of Kankakee delivered to City a packet of documents which purports to be in compliance with Illinois Pollution Control Board’s Order of April 17, 2003.
4. That the discovery packet referred to in the above paragraph did not include any invoices of Hinshaw & Culbertson.
5. That City believes that such invoices do exist because of information contained in Defendant’s Amended Answers to City of Kankakee’s Interrogatories at page 5 thereof wherein County of Kankakee in pertinent part states as follows:

“. . . To the extent said Interrogatory is limited to communications between Waste Management of Illinois, Inc., and the County after August 16, 2002, and prior to the decision date; none other than the communications held on the public record, and procedural non-substantive communications between Special State's Attorney of Kankakee county and the attorneys of Waste Management of Illinois, which would be reflected in the invoices of Hinshaw & Culbertson, and the communications of Elizabeth Harvey with counsel of WMII which are part of the public record, if any. . . ."

6. The "invoices of Hinshaw & Culbertson" referred to in that answer were not contained in the discovery documents supplied by County and further, to the best of City's acknowledge, were never made part of the public record.

WHEREFORE, City of Kankakee, prays that the County of Kankakee be compelled to deliver all of its invoices of Hinshaw & Culbertson sent to the County as part of this siting procedure.

Respectfully submitted,

The City of Kankakee
