ORDER OF THE BOARD (by T.E. Johnson):

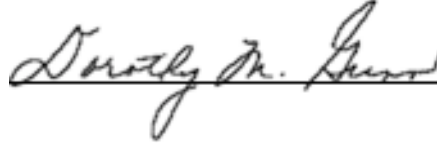

On February 20, 2003, complainant Doris Glave (Glave) filed a motion to amend. To date, no response to the motion has been filed. The consolidated complaints concern allegations that the respondents violated provisions of the Environmental Protection Act (Act) (415 ILCS 5/24 (2002)) and Board regulations by emitting noise resulting from the barking, howling, and whining of dogs housed in respondents' boarding kennel located in Grayslake, Lake County.

In the motion, Glave asks the Board to add her husband Glenn F. Glave to the complaint. Glave asserts that complete determination of the controversy cannot be had without the presence of Glenn F. Glave and that he has a direct interest that would be affected by the Board's decision in this matter, as he is joint tenant in ownership of the Glave residence. Mot. at 1.

Pursuant to Section 101.403 of the Board's procedural rules, the Board may add a person as a party to any adjudicatory proceeding if, inter alia, that person is not already a party to the proceeding but has an interest that the Board's order may affect. See 35 Ill. Adm. Code 101.403(a)(2). The Board finds that Glenn F. Glave has an interest that may be affected by a Board order in this matter. Accordingly, the Board grants Glave's motion to amend, and adds Glenn F. Glave to the proceeding. This amendment is reflected in the caption of today's order.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

I, Dorothy M. Gunn, Clerk of the Illinois Pollution Control Board, certify that the Board adopted the above order on May 1, 2003, by a vote of 7-0.
