AGREED MOTION TO EXCEED PAGE LIMIT

The Petitioner, Rochelle Waste Disposal, L.L.C. ("RWD"), by its attorneys McGreevy, Johnson & Williams, P.C., moves for leave to file a post-hearing brief not in excess of 80 pages and in support thereof states the following:

1. RWD's deadline for filing its post-hearing brief is this Friday, January 16, 2004, and it appears that the issues cannot be dealt with completely within the normal 50 page limit of Section 101.302(k) of the Board's General Rules.

2. Even when the issues were limited to merely the statutory criteria, the various parties dealing with those issues wrote reports or briefs in excess of 50 pages, the Rochelle City Council's Hearing Officer having submitted a 54 page report, the City Staff having submitted a 98 page report and the Petitioner having submitted a 116 page post-hearing brief to the Council's Hearing Officer.

3. In addition to dealing with the various criteria, the Petitioner now also needs to deal with the fundamental fairness issue, and the Petitioner's counsel has concluded that he requires at least 80 pages to deal with all of those issues.

4. Counsel for the Rochelle City Council has informed RWD's counsel that the City Council has no objection to such an order being entered.

WHEREFORE, the Petitioner requests leave to file a post-hearing brief to the Board not in excess of 80 pages.
