HEARING OFFICER ORDER

On November 3, 2004, complainant's attorney called to say that he was unable to attend the telephone status conference set for November 8, 2004. Complainant's attorney sent respondent a proposed stipulation and settlement agreement, and expects respondent to return the signed agreement in the near future. Complainant requested another status conference in 60 days, although this case may be dismissed soon.

The parties are directed to participate in a telephone status conference with the hearing officer at 9:00 a.m. on January 4, 2005. The status conference shall be initiated by the complainant. At the status conference, the parties must be prepared to discuss the status of the above-captioned matter.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
