HEARING OFFICER ORDER

On November 9, 2004, the parties were scheduled for a telephone status conference, but the hearing officer was out of the office. On November 15, 2004, the hearing officer discussed this case with complainant. Complainant would like to work on settling the issues with respondents Childress and McCoy before setting a hearing for respondents Gray and Whyte.

The parties are directed to participate in a telephone status conference with the hearing officer at 9:30 a.m. on January 6, 2005. The status conference shall be initiated by the People. At the status conference, the parties must be prepared to discuss the status of the above-captioned matter.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
