IEPA / BOI

The purpose of this memorandum is to serve as the narrative for a re-inspection conducted on February 24, 2005 of the above referenced site. The re-inspection took place from approximately 12:05 pm to 12:35 pm. The weather conditions were cloudy and 32°F with light snow and wet soil conditions. Twenty-four digital photographs were taken to document the conditions of the site. No one was interviewed during the re-inspection. David Jansen, DLPC/FOS Springfield Region Manager, accompanied me.

The site was previously inspected on September 23, 2004. An Open Dump Administrative Citation Warning Notice was sent to Mr. Thomas Freese on October 26, 2004. A cleanup deadline of January 1, 2005 was agreed to in a November 9, 2004 response letter from Mr. Freese.

Upon arrival at the site on February 24, 2005, I observed a small number of changes in the site conditions since the initial inspection on September 23, 2004. A trailer full of scrap metal on the northeast side of the site had been removed from the site. In addition, two trailers full of scrap metal, several piles of structural steel and other miscellaneous scrap metal have been removed from the northwest portion of the site. While progress has been made to remove the scrap metal from the property, the unidentified drums, the two roll-off boxes full of refuse and other waste materials remain at the site.

An overview of the northwest portion of the site is shown in the attached photo #020. Two full roll-off boxes, scrap metal, unidentified drums and waste materials were observed in this area. The six unidentified drums observed during the initial inspection, which remain unchanged at the site, are shown in the attached photo #001. The used tires and one of two roll-off boxes are shown in the attached photos #002 through #005. This roll-off box appears to contain the same refuse as observed in the September 23, 2004 inspection with the addition of a plastic green garbage can and a few pieces of damaged dimensional lumber. There were around thirty used tires piled near the roll-off box. The second roll-off box is shown in the attached photos #006 and #007. This roll-off box also appeared to contain the same refuse as noted during the previous inspection as documented in the digital photographs. Scrap metal, damaged dimensional lumber and other miscellaneous waste materials were scattered around the northwest side of the site as shown in the attached photos #004 through #007.

Waste materials including wood pallets, damaged dimensional lumber, plastic sheeting, white goods, unidentified containers, spills of unidentified waste and other miscellaneous debris were observed in the northeast portion of the site. This area is illustrated in the attached photos #008 through #010, #018, #019 and #024. White goods in the form of a refrigerator and a dryer are shown in the attached photo #011. The attached photos #010, #012, and #013 show two full, closed blue plastic drums. The drums were both labeled as a plasticizer. Two grain sorghum bags on top of the blue drums were deteriorating and the red colored sorghum had spilled on the ground. A close-up of the spilled material is shown in the attached photo #012.

Another spill of a different white and black colored unidentified plastic-like material was observed just southwest of the blue drums as shown in the attached photos #014 through #017. A close-up of the two weathered fiber drums is shown in the attached photo #015. The drums, spilled white material, wood pallets, plastic tubing, plastic rings and other waste materials were scattered on the ground in this area.

A large cardboard box and a metal grey tote were observed north of the white spilled material as illustrated in the attached photo #018. The large cardboard box was not observed in this location during the September 23, 2004 inspection. The contents of the box are shown in the attached photo #021. The box contained some debris on top of a large quantity of unidentified small plastic-like pellets. A dented grey metal tote is shown in the attached photos #023 and #024. The tote was full to the top with a black used oil-like substance as shown in the attached #023. It was not labeled "Used Oil." This tote was also observed on the property during the September 23, 2004 inspection.

The response from Mr. Frese also included two letters from tenants concerning the drums inside the warehouse. In the first letter, Westmin Corporation explained that their possessions included an undetermined amount of 55-gallon drums of a useable zinc oxide product. The other letter from AquaTech Marine stated that an unspecified amount of used oil containers were present in the warehouse. The Agency's December 8, 2004 letter to Mr. Frese required the submittal of used oil manifests to document the proper disposal or recycling of the used oil. This office has not received any manifests. The used oil containers could not be inspected because the warehouse was closed and locked during the February 24, 2005 inspection.

Copies of manifests and receipts that document the proper disposal or recycling of all waste materials at the site were to be submitted to the Agency by January 5, 2005. The Agency has not received any of the required documentation for the removal of the scrap metal. The apparent open dumping violations that were cited during the initial inspection are continuing based on the February 24, 2005 observations.
