HEARING OFFICER ORDER

On May 4, 2005, Keith Runyon orally informed the hearing officer that it was his intention to file a motion for an extension of time to file his amicus curiae brief. On May 5, 2005, Runyon filed a written motion entitled motion for an extension. In the motion, Runyon requested additional time to file his amicus curiae brief. That aspect of Runyon's motion was addressed in the hearing report of May 4, 2005. Embedded in Runyon's motion, he requested that the 20 page limit for an amicus curiae brief be enlarged. Runyon did not request a specific page limit.

On May 11, 2005, the petitioner informed the hearing officer that it has no objection that an additional 7 pages be included in the amicus curiae brief. To that end, the page limitation for Runyon's brief, as well as Michael Watson and Merlin Karlock's amicus curiae brief, is now 27 pages.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
