HEARING OFFICER ORDER

On August 18, 2005, the parties were scheduled to participate in a telephone status conference with the hearing officer. Neither party appeared. Respondent’s attorney previously left a message for the hearing officer reporting that respondent was never served with the complaint, but had contacted the People for a copy. The Clerk’s Office did not receive proof of service other than the certificate of service filed with the complaint.

The parties are directed to participate in a telephone status conference with the hearing officer at 9:30 a.m. on September 19, 2005. The status conference shall be initiated by the complainant.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
