Response: Admitted.

107. Document 26, enclosed in the binder produced herewith, is a true and accurate copy of a communication received by one or more members of the County Board.

Response: Admitted.

108. Document 27, enclosed in the binder produced herewith, is a true and accurate copy of a communication received by one or more members of the County Board.

Response: Respondent admits that a County Board member received the Sierra Club, heart of Illinois Group letter dated February 14, 2006, and accompanying attachments. However, it appears additional items, some of which are dated after the date of the letter, have been included under the "Document 27" heading. Respondent has no reason to believe that the items included with the February 14, 2006, letter which are dated after that date were included with the letter, and therefore denies the request to that extent. However, Respondent does admit a County Board Member received those additional documents which are included with the letter, although at later dates.

109. Document 28, enclosed in the binder produced herewith, is a true and accurate copy of a communication received by one or more members of the County Board.

1219. Document 1 was not tendered to Peoria Disposal Company by the County Board or any representative thereof prior to the hearing in this matter on May 3, 2006.

Response: Denied in part. Respondent admits that it did not directly deliver any documents filed with the County Clerk to Peoria Disposal Company prior to the appeal. However, Respondent reasonably believes the document was filed with the Clerk, was part of the record, and/or was on the County's website, and therefore was "tendered" to the public, including Peoria Disposal Company. Respondent further states upon information and belief that certain members of the County Board may have tendered documents to Peoria Disposal Company and/or one or more of its representatives at some time. However, the County Board is uncertain whether this document was included in those documents so tendered to PDC, or whether such documents were tendered prior to May 3, 2006.

1220. Document 2 was not tendered to Peoria Disposal Company by the County Board or any representative thereof prior to the hearing in this matter on May 3, 2006.

Response: Admitted. However, Respondent further states upon information and belief that certain members of the County Board may have tendered documents to Peoria Disposal Company and/or one or more of its representatives at some time. However, the County Board is uncertain whether this document was included in those documents so tendered to PDC, or whether such documents were tendered prior to May 3, 2006.

1221. Document 3 was not tendered to Peoria Disposal Company by the County Board or any representative thereof prior to the hearing in this matter on May 3, 2006.

Response: Admitted. However, Respondent further states upon information and belief that certain members of the County Board may have tendered documents to Peoria Disposal Company and/or one or more of its representatives at some time. However, the County Board is uncertain whether this document was included in those documents so tendered to PDC, or whether such documents were tendered prior to May 3, 2006.

1222. Document 4 was not tendered to Peoria Disposal Company by the County Board or any representative thereof prior to the hearing in this matter on May 3, 2006.

Response: Denied in part. Respondent admits that it did not directly deliver any documents filed with the County Clerk to Peoria Disposal Company prior to the appeal. However, Respondent reasonably believes the document was filed with the Clerk, was part of the record, and/or was on the County's website, and therefore was "tendered" to the public, including Peoria Disposal Company. included in those documents so tendered to PDC, or whether such documents were tendered prior to May 3, 2006.

1223. Document 5 was not tendered to Peoria Disposal Company by the County Board or any representative thereof prior to the hearing in this matter on May 3, 2006.

Response: Denied in part. Respondent admits that it did not directly deliver any documents filed with the County Clerk to Peoria Disposal Company prior to the appeal. However, Respondent reasonably believes the document, or one substantially similar, but in a different format, was filed with the Clerk, was part of the record, and/or was on the County's website, and therefore was "tendered" to the public, including Peoria Disposal Company. Respondent further states upon information and belief that certain members of the County Board may have tendered documents to Peoria Disposal Company and/or one or more of its representatives at some time. However, the County Board is uncertain whether this document was included in those documents so tendered to PDC, or whether such documents were tendered prior to May 3, 2006.

1224. Document 6 was not tendered to Peoria Disposal Company by the County Board or any representative thereof prior to the hearing in this matter on May 3, 2006.

Response: Denied in part. Respondent admits that it did not directly deliver any documents filed with the County Clerk to Peoria Disposal Company prior to the appeal.
