Dear Ms. Works:

While reviewing the text of amendments adopted several months ago, I noticed an error in the text of 35 Ill. Adm. Code 702.120 as filed with your office on December 20, 2006. I brought this error to the attention to Deborah Connely, of JCAR staff, and she suggested that I direct this letter to you with the enclosed attachments: one original and two copies of the text of this provision corrected and as it should have been submitted to you when filed on December 20, 2006.

The text of the amendments as it appeared in the Illinois Register, at 31 Ill. Reg. 438, 466-67 (Jan. 12, 2007), was correct, although it indicated the amendments using underlining and strikeout. The amendments added subsection (b) and its subordinate subsections (b)(1) through (b)(6). When preparing the text of the adopted text for filing with your office, however, the two paragraph marks following the text of subsection (a) were deleted. This caused the text of subsection (b) (including the subsection designation "b") to run together with the text of subsection (a), and the subdivisions of subsection (b) appeared as subordinate subsections (a)(1) through (a)(6).
