Any others?

While we were prohibited from burning any houses, debris, garbage, etc., we received numerous phone calls prohibiting any burning. In the meantime, burning permits were issued/granted to other people. (see attached).

We worked in snow, rain, at great expense to remove all the trash/garbage repeatedly dumped on our property, we could not even keep up with the dumping.

WE WOULD APPRECIATE YOUR ABATING ALL ASSESSED PENALTIES/FINES, IN THE HOPE THAT WE BE TREATED FAIRLY, WITHOUT DISCRIMINATION, BECAUSE WE ARE MINORITY.

Sincerely yours,

AML

RE: Neighbors of the Atha Wood Fouiler Trust Farm
Section 32 Hensley Township
3004 N. Rising Road

Cornbelt Fire Protection District has submitted an Open Burn Permit Application to the Illinois Historic Preservation Agency and the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency. We are requesting permission to burn the house and barn at the above location as a multi jurisdictional training session. The Fire Departments that are involved include: Bondville; Cornbelt; Seymour and Sangamon Valley.

A date will be set upon approval from these agencies.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact me at 217-586-3380.

Sincerely,

John D. Jay, Chief
