HEARING OFFICER ORDER

Last week, the hearing officer became aware that her name and address was used on a mass mailing distributed by Peoria Families Against Toxic Waste (PFATW). The mailing contained incorrect information that public comment should be served on the hearing officer. Unfortunately, the mailing contained no return address or contact information for anyone at PFATW. If PFATW had contacted the hearing officer prior to this mass distribution, the hearing officer would have informed PFATW that public comment must be served on the Board's Clerk in Chicago, and that service on the hearing officer does not constitute service on the Board. (35 Ill. Adm. Code 101.302.)

As a result, the hearing officer has received a substantial amount of public comment, including more than 100 pre-printed post cards. The hearing officer assumes no responsibility for public comment that was not served in accordance with the Board's procedural rules. However, as a courtesy, the hearing officer will forward public comment she receives to the Clerk's Office.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
