AMENDED PETITION FOR REVIEW OF ADMINISTRATIVE CITATION
OF THE IEPA DATED AUGUST 27, 2012

NOW COMES HUGHES TIRE & BATTERY COMPANY, by its attorney, Stephen G. Andich, and Petitions for Review of Administrative Citation of the IEPA, dated August 27, 2012, and states as follows:

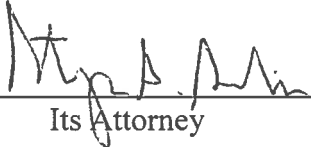

1. This proceeding concerns a facility located at 120 East 1st Avenue, Milan, Rock Island County, Illinois
2. A field inspector for the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency (Gerald S. McGhee) inspected the above-property on July 27, 2012 and alleges Respondent violated Section 55(k)(1) of the Environmental Protection Act 415 ILCS.
3. McGhee observed 25 used or waste tires stored outside that were not protected. The inspection took place on a work day during operating business hours in a busy tire shop where tires are regularly moved in and out of the shop.
4. The inspector indicated several of the used tires were holding water. There must be a point where a few tires with water in them does not constitute a violation of the Act.
5. The Respondent provided receipts for disposal of several truckloads of tires in December, 2011 and June, 2012, and July, 2012

6. The number of tires outside and unprotected was reduced from several hundred to twenty five. Attached hereto are photographs of the premises taken in October, 2012 which shows the current condition of the facilities which indicates full compliance.

7. The Respondent has made tremendous progress in the previous year to rectify the violation while struggling to financially survive in a depressed marketplace. The poor local economy created uncontrollable circumstances which prevented Respondent from complying with the Act.

WHEREFORE, Respondent prays the finding of the IEPA be reversed and there be a finding of no violation. In the alternative, in the event the Board finds there is a violation, that the civil penalty be vacated.

HUGES TIRE & BATTERY COMPANY,
Respondent.
