THE GAME IS ON!

Cryptoquote

A cryptogram is an encoded message containing a quote by a famous person. Below is a completed example. Each letter stands in for another letter. For instance, in this example the G's stand in for the letter T, the Z's are actually H's and K's are E's. This one that the GZHU is the puzzle is actually the word THE. Use the length of the words and punctuation as hints. Keep in mind that the letter pairings are different for each puzzle.
