Re: People of the State of Illinois v. C. Grantham Company
Case No. PCB 07-132

Dear Ms. Webb:

I no longer have any contact information for the People's attorney as you note in your Order. I would ask you to forward this correspondence to the new attorney once assigned.

C. Grantham Co. is no longer in existence and has not been for some time. The Company has millions of dollars of debt with numerous outstanding judgments.

Mr. Quirin, whom I represent, is not a party to this proceeding. However, I have been discussing a resolution with the People's attorney to try to dispose of this matter.

All the while, Mr. Quirin has been charged in Federal Court in East St. Louis with mail fraud and tax fraud charges. He is scheduled to change his plea in Federal Court and be sentenced on January 31, 2014 before Chief Judge David Herndon. As a part of his anticipated sentence, he will be incarcerated for about two years and be ordered to pay substantial restitution.

I will send you and the new People's attorney a copy of the Judgment and Commitment when it is filed in the Southern District of Illinois.

Under these circumstances, I have no ability to dispose of this case as I hope you and the People will understand.

Sincerely,

Ronald E. Jenkins
