PCB LEGISLATIVE REPORT:
POLLUTION PREVENTION ACT (S.B. 1295) REACHES GOVERNOR'S DESK;
READERS URGED TO NOTE NEW CLEAN AIR ACT RULEMAKING REQUIREMENTS

Undoubtedly the most significant piece of environmental legislation passed in the Spring Session of the legislature was Senate Bill 1295, The Illinois Pollution Prevention Act. The bill, now on Governor Edgar's desk, is the product of weeks of intensive negotiations among agencies, the Governor's Office, various segments of the regulated community, and representatives of several environmental advocacy groups. The bill would make sweeping changes in Illinois' environmental laws. Among its significant changes, the bill would establish the Pollution Prevention Advisory Council as part of a program to establish a pollution prevention strategy for Illinois. It would also prohibit the use of packaging containing certain toxic materials effective July 1, 1994.

However, the most significant changes in S.B. 1295 are those relating to the federal Clean Air Act Amendments of 1990 (CAAA). The bill would create the Clean Air Act Permit Program (CAAPP) and establish unique identical-in-substance and "fast-track" rulemaking procedures for CAAA regulations. It would prohibit the Board from initiating rulemaking to implement the CAAA; such rules would rather be required to be proposed by the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency (IEPA). Importantly, it would create the Clean Air Act Permit Fund to fund the CAAA-related activities of the Agency, the Board and other entities; the Fund would be supported by annual fees imposed on air pollution emission sources no sooner than January 1, 1994. It would create the position of Small Business Ombudsman and a State Compliance Advisory Panel to support small business in trying to comply with CAAA/CAAPP requirements. It would impose a civil penalty of not to exceed $10,000 per day for violation of CAAPP-related regulations, fee provisions, or filing requirements. Finally, it would amend the Public Utilities Act to allow public utilities to file a separate tariff to recover CAAPP fees.

If the bill is signed in its present form, the Board urges all interested persons to take special note of the new CAAA rulemaking provisions, designed to expedite the rulemaking process. One practical difference is that there is virtually no discretion provided to the Board to accommodate any participant's scheduling problems, such as the unavailability of witnesses on designated hearing days, whether due to illness, flight delays or other unavoidable causes. Participants thus should be particularly diligent and conservative in preparing for and meeting filing deadlines and hearing schedules.

As of press time (9/15/92), the Governor had not yet taken action to approve, veto or amendatorily veto this legislation. For additional information on recent legislation contact Phil Van Ness, the Board's Intergovernmental Affairs Attorney, at (312) 814-3620.

GROUNDWATER QUALITY STANDARDS AMENDMENTS ADOPTED, R89-14(C)

On September 3, 1992, the Board adopted amendments to the public water supply and water pollution control rules relating to groundwater quality. This rulemaking completed a set of rules adopted in prior proceedings that establish quality standards for Illinois groundwater. The proposed amendments effect corrections to the earlier-adopted rules. They clarify the applicability of the water pollution control regulations of Subtitle C to underground waters. They also restore an inadvertently-omitted phrase to the text of the earlier-adopted rules. The Board adopted the amendments without substantive change from the April 23, 1992 second First Notice. Directed questions to Michelle Dresdow, at 815-753-0947. (Please refer to docket R89-14(C)).

LIST OF TOXIC AIR CONTAMINANTS ADOPTED, R90-1(A)

On September 3, 1992, in Docket R90-1(A), the Board made final a list of 263 toxic air contaminants which may pose a significant risk to human health. In addition to the list of chemicals, the Board adopted a method for use in determining if a chemical is toxic or carcinogenic (cancer-causing). The rules also include provisions by which the listing of a chemical may be proposed or challenged.

Section 9.5(c) of the Environmental Protection Act mandated that the Board adopt this list, which the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency initiated by filing a proposal. Due to the nature of some of the questions arising during the public hearing and comment periods in this docket R90-1(A), the Board has deferred action on some issues. Docket R90-1(B) will consider the listing of chemicals that may threaten plant and animal life. Docket R90-1(C) contains that portion of the rules proposed as the new 35 Ill. Adm. Code 232.Subpart D recordskeeping and reporting requirements, as published at 15 Ill. Reg. 14969, Oct. 15, 1991. The Board opened docket R90-1(D) on September 3, 1992 by RES 92-1 in response to an objection by the Joint Committee on Administrative Rules relating to the proposal to include styrene on the list of air toxics in R90-1(A). R90-1(D) will allow further consideration as to whether the Board should or should not list styrene and a fuller explanation of the Board's rationale for any action it may take in this regard.

Copies of the final rules (R90-1(A)) and the Board's resolution on styrene (RES 92-1) are available from the Clerk of the Board, 100 W. Randolph, Suite 11-500, Chicago, Illinois 60601 (312-814-3620). Direct questions to LouAnn C. Burnett at 217-333-5573. (Please refer to docket R90-1(A) or RES 92-1, as appropriate.)

APPEAL UPDATE

FIRST DISTRICT AFFIRMS BOARD REGIONAL POLLUTION CONTROL FACILITY SITING APPEAL DECISION ON REMAND

By an August 28, 1992 decision on remand in Waste Management of Illinois, Inc. v. PCB (1992), No. 1-89-2541, the First District appellate court affirmed the Board's July 13, August 10, and September 13, 1989 decisions in Waste Management of Illinois, Inc. v. Village of Bensenville, PCB 88-39, 101 PCB 73, 102 PCB 25, 103 PCB 17. In that regional pollution control facility siting review, the Board upheld the Village of Bensenville's February 2, 1989 denial of siting approval for a waste transfer station proposed for a seven-acre site within the Village. The Village had held, inter alia, that Waste Management had failed to prove the site was necessary for the area proposed to be served, as required by Section 39.2(a)(i) of the Environmental Protection Act, Ill. Rev. Stat. 1991 ch. 111½, par. 1039.2(a)(i). The Board affirmed the Village's determination by its order of July 13, 1989 without opinion. The Board rendered its supporting opinion on August 10, 1989. Waste Management petitioned for Board reconsideration, which the Board denied on September 13, 1989.

Waste Management appealed the Board's decision, and the court held that the Board had failed to render its final decision within the 120 days required by statute, Ill. Rev. Stat. 1991 ch. 111½, par. 1040.1(a), so the siting approval was deemed granted by operation of law. The Board appealed this decision to the Illinois supreme court, which reversed by upholding the Board's determination. The supreme court held that the Board's decision of July 13, 1989 was a "final action" for the purposes of Section 40.1(a), even though the Board did not render its supporting opinion including the required "statement of reasons" until August 10. Waste Management of Illinois, Inc. v. PCB (1992), 145 Ill. 2d 345, 585 N.E.2d 606.

On remand, the First District addressed the merits of the Board's affirmance of the Village's determination on facility siting. The court addressed the issue of the statutorily-required showing of need. The court found that the record failed to establish a need for the facility in the area proposed to be served. Rather, the court highlighted its numerous informational deficiencies, including the percentage of the service area the facility would serve, the lack of an economic analysis of the proposal, and the anticipated remaining capacity of local landfills. On the other hand, the court found that the record clearly indicated the facility would improve the efficiency of Waste Management's operations. It found that this was not enough to establish the statutory requirement of necessity. The court held that the Village's determination as upheld by the Board was not against the manifest weight of the evidence and affirmed the Board's decision.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION

MOTIONS FOR RECONSIDERATION MAY BE NECESSARY TO PERFECT AN APPEAL

On August 20 the Third District court of appeals denied the Attorney General's July 17, 1992 motion to dismiss in Strube v. Pollution Control Board (3-92-0468). The motion, filed on behalf of the Board and the IEPA, sought to dismiss the appeal based on the Illinois Supreme Court's decision in Casteneda v. Illinois Human Rights Commission (1989), 132 Ill. 2d 304, 547 N.E.2d 437, where the court held that the failure to file a motion for reconsideration amounted to a failure to exhaust administrative remedies. The Board and the IEPA contended, based on Casteneda, that a motion for reconsideration must be filed with the Board in order to perfect an appeal to the appellate court. The Third District's order denying the motion to dismiss was without opinion, so the impact of Casteneda on appeals from Board orders is still uncertain. Whenever an Illinois court issues a decision on this issue, an item will appear in the Environmental Register.

FORMER CHAIRMAN DUMELLE TO BE HONORED

The Illinois Association of Wastewater Agencies has announced its intent to bestow its 1992 Illinois Award to former Board chairman Jacob D. Dumelle. Mr. Dumelle was selected from numerous nominees to receive this award for his contributions to the fields of waste collection, treatment, and purification. Mr. Dumelle will receive the award at the Association's 1992 annual meeting to be held October 15, 1992 at Pere Marquette State Park, near Grafton, Illinois.

UPDATE TO ENVIRONMENTAL REGISTER MAILING LIST

The Board is updating the mailing list for the Environmental Register. This is the second annual update of the mailing list for the mailings of the Register. The Board desires to minimize the impact of these mailings on our budget by assuring that only those who desire to receive regular free copies of the Register will appear on the list. If you would like to continue to receive it, please fill out the address label located on the next to last page of this issue and return it to the Board as soon as possible.

WATERWAYS CRUISE AND ENVIRONMENTAL WORKSHOP

EILEEN JOHNSTON is organizing another waterways cruise and floating seminar for Saturday, September 26, 1991. The floating seminar is planned to discuss areas of environmental concern and the progress made in solving problems since the first Earth Day in 1970. Participants will view pictures of what the areas looked like twenty years ago. Speakers from state and federal agencies and industries will discuss the environmental progress made, pollution abatement and current problems.

The cruise is on the Wendella and is 72 miles long. Participants will view the ever changing and exciting shoreline and skyline of Chicago and northern Indiana, and the waterways of the Calumet Sag Channel, Calumet River and I & M Shipping Canal. The cruise also passes steel mills, new water reclamation facilities, barges, landfills and the canyon of city skyscrapers.

Eileen's cruise serves to demonstrate the environmental challenges facing our country due to the dramatic impact of man on the environment. Some of the questions addressed during the floating seminar include: What progress has been made? Can we eat fish from the lake? How are environmental regulations proposed and enforced?

Participants meet at 8:45 a.m. at the foot of the Wrigley Building, and we return before 4 p.m. Parking facilities are located west of the building, allow time to locate a space. Use public transportation if possible. Be prompt, don't miss the boat!! Bring your lunch. Soft drinks are sold on board. Warm clothes and head gear are in order.
