ORDER OF THE BOARD (by G.T. Girard):

On December 31, 2008, Reynolds Service Co. (respondent) filed a motion to reconsider and vacate the Board's December 4, 2008 order and December 18, 2008 order (Mot.). The Illinois Environmental Protection Agency (Agency) has not responded to the motion.

In ruling on a motion for reconsideration, the Board will consider factors including new evidence or a change in the law, to conclude that the Board's decision was in error. 35 Ill. Adm. Code 101.902. In Citizens Against Regional Landfill v. County Board of Whiteside, PCB 93-156 (Mar. 11, 1993), we observed that "the intended purpose of a motion for reconsideration is to bring to the court's attention newly discovered evidence which was not available at the time of hearing, changes in the law or errors in the court's previous application of the existing law." Korogluyan v. Chicago Title & Trust Co., 213 Ill. App. 3d 622, 627, 572 N.E.2d 1154, 1158 (1st Dist. 1992). The respondent argues that the Board's December 4, 2008 order could not have "considered or addressed important matters contained" in respondent's reply. Mot. at 2.

As the Board noted in the December 18, 2008 order finding that the reply was moot, the Board's rules provide that the moving party does not have the right to reply except as allowed by the Board or hearing officer. 35 Ill. Adm. Code 101.500(d). The reply was not accompanied by a motion for leave to file a reply and was received after the Board entered the final order. The Board entered the final order 17 days after receipt of the Agency's response to the motion to clarify. Therefore, the Board properly declined to consider the reply and nothing in respondent's motion for reconsideration convinces the Board otherwise. Therefore, the Board denies the motion to reconsider.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

I, John T. Therriault, Assistant Clerk of the Illinois Pollution Control Board, certify that the Board adopted the above opinion and order on February 5, 2009, by a vote of 5-0.
