TESTIMONY OF TOBY FREVERT

My name is Toby Frevert and I am the Manager of the Division of Water Pollution within the Bureau of Water of the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency ("Illinois EPA"). I have been with the Illinois EPA in excess of 20 years.

My testimony will provide a brief overview of the actions that the Agency has taken since the March 17, 2003 hearing on this matter. First, the Agency is in the process of thoroughly reviewing the proposed rulemaking. This review contains an in-depth analysis of the existing regulations to ensure that the proposed rulemaking does not duplicate the language or the concept that is already covered by the existing regulations. After this analysis, the Agency intends to modify the proposed language or suggest alternative language where such changes are warranted. Second, the Agency has met with the proponents and have meetings scheduled with the other major stakeholders to discuss in detail the elements of the proposal. These meetings will allow the Agency to better understand the views of the various stakeholders and would also allow the Agency to make recommendations to the Board that have been argued, if not agreed upon, by the interested stakeholders. I will report on the status of these discussions to the Board at the April 2, 2003 hearing.

This concludes my pre-filed testimony. I will be supplementing the testimony as needed during the hearing. I would be happy to address any questions.
