RE: PCB 2013-024

Mr. Therriault

Midwest Generation's dirty coal plants in Illinois have been dumping dangerous sulfur dioxide emissions into the air and making local residents sick for far too long. In order to reduce dangerous pollution and save lives in Illinois, I urge you to require the company to meet the pollution reductions it previously agreed to by voting no on the requested variance.

Sincerely,

Margaret Keylin

RE: PCB 2013-024

Mr. Therriault

Coal burning is bad enough to our health and to the health of the earth. Installing pollution controls is the LEAST they can do, and must be enforced. Midwest Generation's dirty coal plants in Illinois have been dumping dangerous sulfur dioxide emissions into the air and making local residents sick for far too long. In order to reduce dangerous pollution and save lives in Illinois, I urge you to require the company to meet the pollution reductions it previously agreed to by voting no on the requested variance. Thank you for your attention to this vital matter. God bless.

Midwest Generation's dirty coal plants in Illinois have been dumping dangerous sulfur dioxide emissions into the air and making local residents sick for far too long. If Midwest Generation can't afford to meet the agreed-upon pollution limits for its coal plants, it should save lives by shutting the plants down. I urge you to require the company to meet the pollution reductions it previously agreed to by voting no on the requested variance.

Mr. Therriault

Midwest Generation's dirty coal plants in Illinois have been dumping dangerous sulfur dioxide emissions into the air and making local residents sick for far too long. In order to reduce dangerous pollution and save lives in Illinois, I urge you to require the company to meet the pollution reductions it previously agreed to by voting no on the requested variance.

Sincerely,

Rupa Shah
