Sorry about the delay in responding. I have been out for an injury, and the two partial days that I was in the office last week did not give me enough time to examine and respond to all my e-mail. I am prioritizing your inquiries today and tomorrow.

If I recall correctly, these adopted amendments will appear in the January 30, 2015 issue of the Illinois Register. If JCAR has not corrected the as-published copy, I cannot file an expedited correction. It is a simple matter for me to mark this for correction in the next RCRA Subtitle C update. I believe it possible that a proposal for public comment for such an update may arise in the next two months. I have already marked the text for future correction. Will this be sufficient?

Please advise.

John T.: Please enter this as a comment in docket R15-1 and reserved docket R15-1

Also: I've been advised by senior staff that in 724.171(j) and 725.171(j), the change was not intended to be "Section 724.171(a)(2)(v)" to "subsection 724.171(a)(2)(E)" but rather "Section 724.171(a)(2)(v)" to "subsection (a)(2)(E)". Please let me know how you would prefer to proceed.

Thanks again.

Quick note: The 2nd notice order says that you changed the citation in this subsection from 725.172 to 724.172. This change isn't reflected in the pages filed (register version shows 725.172 being stricken and added back; code pages show 725.172). Would it be possible for you to re-file that page with SOS at your earliest convenience, or was there an 11th-hour decision to go with 725 after all?

Please advise.

Thanks so much.

Jonathan
