Yes, indeed, the omission was intentional. That address was provided for hand-delivery. The preceding address in Section 721.139(a)(5)(B)(i) was for mailing the report.

John T.: Please enter this e-mail as a comment in docket RT5-1.

One more thing: in 721.139(a)(5)(B)(ii), did you intend to omit the ZIP code? Please advise.

Thanks so much.

Also: I've been advised by senior staff that in 724.171(j) and 725.171(j), the change was not intended to be "Section 724.171(a)(2)(v)" to "subsection 724.171(a)(2)(E)" but rather "Section 724.171(a)(2)(v)" to "subsection (a)(2)(E)". Please let me know how you would prefer to proceed.

Thanks again.

Quick note: The 2nd notice order says that you changed the citation in this subsection from 725.172 to 724.172. This change isn't reflected in the pages filed (register version shows 725.172 being stricken and added back; code pages show 725.172). Would it be possible for you to re-file that page with SOS at your earliest convenience, or was there an 11th-hour decision to go with 725 after all?

Please advise.

Thanks so much.

Jonathan
