In response to the JCAR request for a Small Business Impact Analysis on the above-mentioned rulemaking, we provide the following:

The proposed amendments are intended to remove or change obsolete or unnecessary language. The proposed amendments are part of the Board's review of obsolete or unnecessary language contained in rulemakings. The Board is complying with Executive Order 2016-13 which required agencies to identify outdated, repetitive, confusing or unnecessary rules and amend or repeal them.

The changes contained in this rulemaking do not require any new professional skills, filing, reporting or bookkeeping requirements for small businesses.
