Respondent.)

HEARING OFFICER ORDER

On August 14, 2020, all parties participated in a telephonic status conference with the hearing officer. The first discussion centered on my Order of August 10, 2020. To clarify, my Order denied complainant's motion to exclude witnesses only to the extent that experts may remain in the hearing room but fact or lay witnesses are to be excluded and sequestered.

Discussion was also entertained on the logistics of the upcoming hearing commencing on September 21, 2020. It was discussed that, due to the pandemic, I will attempt to make video available between the JRTC room and the Springfield, Illinois hearing room. It was also discussed that WebEx may be available for the hearing. February 25, 2020, all parties participated in a telephonic status conference.

Further discussion will be entertained, including a discussion on exhibits, on the date and time noted below.

The parties or their legal representatives are directed to participate in a telephonic status conference with the hearing officer on August 19, 2020, at 9:30 a.m. Complainant has provided a call-in number.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
