PBC # 01-07

RESPONDENT'S MOTION TO QUASH NOTICES OF DEPOSITION

NOW COMES Respondent, QC Finishers, Inc., by and through its attorney, H.E. Hanson, Esq. P.C., and moves the Hearing Officer pursuant to 35 Ill. Adm. Code 101.622(d) to quash the notices of deposition issued to Charles Stitzel, Zbigniew Skirucha, Paul Podedworny, Paul Gratzke, Steve Anderson and Frank Bartholomew. In support of this motion Respondent states as follows:

1. Complainant has issued six notices of deposition to the persons listed above. The notices purport to command the production of certain documents, identified on Attachment A to each notice. True and correct copies of the notices are attached.

2. The Illinois Environmental Protection Act, 415 ILCS 5/5(e) provides that the "Board may subpoena and compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of evidence." Board rule 35 Ill Adm. Code 101.622(a), further provides that "the Clerk will issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses at a hearing or deposition. Subpoena forms are available at the Board's office."

3. The notices filed by Respondent were not effective as subpoenas in the following respects:

- a. They were not issued by the Clerk of the Illinois Pollution Control Board.
- b. They were not on subpoena forms.
- c. They did not offer witness fees pursuant to 35 Ill Adm. Code 101.622(e).

4. The Board's rules specify standards and filing requirements for subpoenas. The Board's rules do not address or specifically permit parties to compel the attendance of witnesses by "notice."

5. Board rule, 35 Ill. Adm. Code 101.622(c), provides that subpoenas may include a command to produce papers, etc.. The notices are not subpoenas, therefore they may not command the production of documents.

6. The notices were improperly served and are therefore void for the following reasons:

a. The names and addresses of the persons most knowledgeable about the facts in the Complaint were timely supplied to Complainant on June 16, 2003. The Hearing Officer Order of April 2, 2003 stated that deposition notices were to be served on or before July 7, 2003. The Certificate of Service states that it was filed on July 8, 2003. Thus the notices were filed a day late in violation of the Hearing Officer order.

b. 35 Ill Adm. Code 101.622(b) provides that a "copy of the subpoena must be filed with the Clerk and served upon the hearing officer within 7 days after service upon the witness. Failure to serve both the Clerk and the hearing officer will render the subpoena null and void..." No Proof of Service or Certificate of Service showing that the notice was filed the Board's Clerk was served upon Respondent.

7. The two notices sent to the nonparties, Steve Anderson, an independent consultant, and Frank Bartholomew, a former employee, are additionally deficient in the following respects:

a. The Board's rules provide that "any discovery request under these rules to any nonparty must be filed with the Clerk of the Board with a signed original and 4 duplicate copies (5 total)... 35 Ill. Adm. Code 101.302(i). No proof of such service was filed with the two nonparty notices.

b. Without the approval of the Clerk of the Board, as evidenced by her signature on the subpoena form, neither the parties nor the Hearing Officer has the authority to the compel the production of documents by an individual who is not an employee or an officer of a party in the case.

8. The information demanded in Attachment A of the notices is impermissibly broad in scope and would result in undue expense, undue delay and harassment of the witnesses in the following respects:

a. Paragraph 1, which is identical in all six notices, requests "any and all documents related to...the operation of Q C Finishers." The production of each and every document related to Q C Finishers 18 years of operation would be a massive undertaking.

b. Paragraph 4, which is identical in all six notices, requests all documents and correspondence between Q C Finishers and manufacturers of certain material used at Q C Finishers from 1985 until approximately 1999, a period of sixteen years. This is also an unduly burdensome request.

c. The notices sent to Messrs. Stitzel, Podedworny, Skirucha and Gratzke are deficient in that paragraphs 5 and 6 seek information on Q C Finishers assets and lease, neither of which is relevant to the alleged violations or to the Act's 33(c) or 42(h) factors. Further the information sought by the paragraphs would also include confidential information which would be protected from disclosure pursuant to 35 Ill Adm. Code 101.614.

11. Last, the notices sent to each witness contained the threat that the People "reserve the right to seek reimbursement of costs from deponent...in the event said deponent does not produce documents required by this notice."

12. The Board does not have the authority to assess costs against witnesses. 35 Ill Adm. Code 101.622(g) and 101.800.

"Section 101.800 does not allow the Board to monetarily sanction the offending party. (See revision of the Board's Procedural Rules 35 Ill. Adm. Code 101-130, R00-20 slip op. at 7 (Dec.21, 2000)) where the Board eliminated language allowing the Board to sanction the offending party with reasonable costs incurred by the moving party in obtaining an order for sanctions.)" Lawrence v. North Point Grade School, PCB 02-10, 2003 Ill ENV LEXIS 180 (April 3, 2003).

13. In addition, because the Attorney General did not comply with the Board's rules, did not obtain a subpoena issued by the Board's Clerk, and did not comply with the Hearing Officer's Order in the issuance of the notices it has no basis to seek any sanction.

14. The threat stated in the notices has no basis in law and therefore served only to harass, threaten and worry the individuals to whom the notices were directed.

15. In summary, the notices filed by Complainant purport to be the equivalent of subpoenas but they do not comport with the Board's rules governing subpoenas. Only the Board's Clerk has the authority to issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses at depositions. In addition the notices were untimely, not properly served, and unduly burdensome. For these and other reasons stated above the notices are null and void and without legal effect.

16. Of greatest concern is that the notices inappropriately threaten individuals with monetary sanctions that the Board does not impose.

17. Complainant failed to use the Board's approved subpoena forms and instead has written a notice that improperly threatens individuals in the Board's name. This constitutes a willful attempt to obtain information by an improper discovery method pursuant to 35 Ill Adm. Code Section 101.802. Therefore it is appropriate to prohibit the Complainant, pursuant to 35 Ill Adm. Code 101.614, from filing additional notices or subpoenas and further contributing to the delay and expense of this proceeding, and to the harassment of these individuals.

WHEREFORE Respondent, QC Finishers, Inc. prays that this Court enter its Order quashing the notices with prejudice to leave to refile additional notices and /or subpoenas.

Respectfully Submitted,

QC Finishers, Inc.
