STAFF UPDATE

The Board welcomes Cameron Kline. Mr. Kline joins the Board as the new Public Information Coordinator. He received his bachelor and master degrees from the University of Illinois at Urbana. Prior to coming to the Board, he spent one year in the Governor's press office through the Dunn Fellowship program, worked as an intern at WDWS-AM in Champaign, and had an assistantship with the National Center of Supercomputing Applications at the U of I. Mr. Kline will work out of the Board's Springfield office.

Amey Hoogasian, formerly the Attorney Assistant to Chairman Manning, has left the Board to assume her new responsibilities at the Department of Justice's Immigration and Naturalization Service. Chairman Manning and the Board wish to thank Ms. Hoogasian for all of her hard work. We know that she will excel in her new position.

United States Environmental Protection Agency Adopts Rules Designating Mercury-Containing Lamps as Universal Waste Regulated Under the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act

On July 6, 1999, the United States Environmental Protection Agency (USEPA) adopted rules designating mercury-containing lamps as universal waste regulated under the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (RCRA) (42 U.S.C. §§ 6901 et seq.). 64 Fed. RULEMAKING UPDATE

Board Adopts Amendments for Public Comment in Identical-in-Substance Rulemaking in In the Matter of: Wastewater Pretreatment Update, USEPA Regulations (July 1, 1998, through December 31, 1998), R99-17

On July 8, 1999, pursuant to Sections 7.2 and 13.3 of the Environmental Protection Act (Act) (415 ILCS 5/7.2, 13.3 (1998)), the Board adopted amendments to the Illinois wastewater pretreatment regulations. The amendments establish in state law new standards and guidelines under the Federal Water Pollution Control Act (FWPCA) (33 U.S.C. §§ 1251 et seq. (1998)) for the pesticide chemicals manufacturing industry and the pharmaceutical manufacturing industry.

Section 13.3 of the Act provides for quick adoption of the regulations that are "identical-in-substance" to federal wastewater pretreatment regulations adopted by the United States Environmental Protection Agency (USEPA) pursuant to Sections 307(b), (c), and (d) and 402(b)(9) of the FWPCA (33 U.S.C. §§ 1317(b), (c), (d), 1342(b)(9) (1998)). Section 13.3 of the Act also provides that Title VII of the Act and Section 5 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 ILCS 100/5-35, 5-40 (1998)) do not apply to this rulemaking. Accordingly, this rulemaking is not subject to first or second-notice review by the Joint Committee on Administrative Rules.

The amendments incorporate certain federal amendments that occurred during the period of July 1, 1998, through December 31, 1998. The federal wastewater pretreatment regulations are found at 40 C.F.R. §§ 400-499.

The USEPA states that, prior to adoption of these rules, handlers of universal wastes were subject to less stringent standards for storing, transporting, and collecting these wastes. The USEPA has concluded that regulating spent mercury-containing lamps under 40 C.F.R. 273 will lead to better management of these lamps and will facilitate compliance with hazardous waste requirements under RCRA. The USEPA maintains that adoption of the rules, which streamlines the RCRA Subtitle C management requirements for mercury-containing lamps, also supports energy conservation efforts.

On June 20, 1996, the Board adopted the Universal Waste Rule and codified it at 35 Ill. Adm. Code 733. See In the Matter of: RCRA Update, USEPA Regulations (1-1-95 through 6-30-95, 7-7-95, 9-29-95, 11-13-95 & 6-6-96) (June 20, 1996), R95-20.

In the Board's opinion and order, the Board noted that the "USEPA stated in adopting the [Universal Waste Rules] that it intend[ed] to expand [the Universal Waste Rule's] applicability to new wastes in the future, such as fluorescent light bulbs." Id., slip op. at 24.

On August 19, 1997, Illinois Governor Jim Edgar signed into law Public Act 90-502. Pub. Act 90-502, eff. August 19, 1997 (amended 415 ILCS 5/22.23a (1998)). This legislation specifically designated high intensity discharge lamps and fluorescent lamps as a category of universal waste. It further required the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency (IEPA) to propose implementing regulations to the Board within 60 days after the effective date of Public Act 90-502 and for the Board to adopt such implementing regulations within 180 days of receipt of the IEPA's proposal. On April 2, 1998, the Board adopted amendments designating mercury-containing lamps as a category of universal waste and standards for the management of this category of universal waste. See In the Matter of: Amendments to 35 Ill. Adm. Code 703, 720, 721, 724, 725, 728, and 733 (Standards for Universal Waste Management) (April 2, 1998), R98-12.

The Board will examine its existing rules to determine whether any modification is necessary. If so, the Board will adopt any necessary amendments in an identical-in-substance RCRA update rulemaking pursuant to Section 7.2 of the Environmental Protection Act (415 ILCS 5/7.2 (1998)).

United States Environmental Protection Agency Approves the Illinois State Implementation Plan for Hospital/Medical/Infectious Waste Incinerators.

On July 7, 1999, the United States Environmental Protection Agency (USEPA) approved the Illinois State Implementation Plan (Illinois SIP) for hospital/medical/infectious waste incinerators (HMIWIs) submitted on May 28, 1999.

On May 6, 1999, the Board adopted the rules regulating HMIWIs (see In the Matter of: Hospital/Medical/Infectious Waste Incinerators: Adoption of 35 Ill. Adm. Code 229 (May 6, 1999), R99-10).

The Illinois SIP adopts and implements the USEPA's emissions guidelines (EGs) applicable to existing HMIWIs. The effect of the USEPA's approval of the Illinois SIP is that the Illinois SIP meets Section 111(d) of the Clean Air Act Amendments of 1990 (42 U.S.C. §§ 7401 et seq. (1990)), which requires that states submit a plan for the control of emissions from any source for which the USEPA has promulgated a performance standard.

The USEPA has promulgated new source performance standards (NSPS) and the EGs to reduce emissions from HMIWIs. 40 C.F.R. §§ 60.50c-60.58c, 60.30e-60.39e. The NSPSs apply to HMIWIs for which construction began after June 20, 1996, or for which a modification was begun after March 16, 1998. The EGs apply to existing HMIWIs, defined as ones for which construction began on or before June 20, 1996. Unlike the NSPSs, the EGs do not establish standards for HMIWIs. Rather, the EGs direct the states to adopt plans regulating existing HMIWIs and establish minimum elements required in the states' plans. The rules become effective September 7, 1999.

United States Environmental Protection Agency Proposes Procedural Amendments for Review of State Water Quality Standards

On July 9, 1999, the United States Environmental Protection Agency (USEPA) proposed procedural amendments for the review of state water quality standards in accordance with the Clean Water Act (42 U.S.C. §§ 1251 et seq.). 64 Fed. Reg. 37072 (July 9, 1999). The proposed amendments provide that state water quality standards will not be effective as federal law until after the USEPA approves them.

Written comments may be filed with the USEPA on or before August 23, 1999. Comments must be sent to: Docket W-99-05, WQS-Approvals Comments Clerk, Water Docket, MC 4101, USEPA, 401 M Street, SW, Washington, DC 20460.

United States Environmental Protection Agency Issues Advance Notice of Proposed Rulemaking Presenting Potential Revisions to the Land Disposal Restriction Treatment Standards Applicable to Mercury-Bearing Hazardous Wastes

On July 27, 1999, the United States Environmental Protection Agency (USEPA) issued advance notice of a proposed rulemaking presenting potential revisions to the land disposal restriction treatment standards applicable to mercury-bearing wastes. 64 Fed. Reg. 30534 (July 27, 1999). The advance notice of proposed rulemaking requests comments on USEPA's waste generation and treatment data for mercury-bearing hazardous waste, as well as on technical and policy issues regarding mercury waste treatment, and potential avenues by which current mercury treatment standards might be revised. The USEPA extended the comment period from July 27, 1999, to October 25, 1999.

In order to comment on this advance notice of proposed rulemaking, send an original and two copies of the comments referencing docket number F-1999-MTSF-FFFFF to: RCRA Docket Information Center, Office of Solid Waste (5305G), USEPA, 401 M Street, SW, Washington, DC 20460.

United States Environmental Protection Agency Reproposes Second Phase Emission Regulations to Control Emissions from New Nonroad Spark-Ignition Handheld Engines

On July 28, 1999, the United States Environmental Protection Agency (USEPA) repropose a second phase of emission regulations to control emissions from new nonroad spark-ignition handheld engines at or below 19 kilowatts (25 horsepower). 64 Fed. Reg. 40939 (July 28, 1999). The engines covered by this proposal are used principally in handheld lawn and garden equipment, such as trimmers, leaf blowers, and chainsaws. The USEPA originally proposed standards for these engines in January 1998. However, recent dramatic advancements in small engine emission control technology have led the USEPA to repropose significantly more stringent standards for handheld engines than the original proposal. The USEPA expects that the newly proposed standards will result in an estimated 78 percent reduction of emissions of hydrocarbons plus oxides of nitrogen from those achieved under the current Phase 1 standards applicable to handheld engines. The USEPA states that the proposed standards for handheld engines are scheduled to be phased in beginning with the 2002 model year. The standards would result in important reductions, which contribute to excessively high ozone levels in many areas of the United States.

The proposed rules also affect Phase 2 nonhandheld engines. The USEPA has proposed standards for two classes of nonhandheld engines that would apply to engines below 100 cubic centimeters displacement used in nonhandheld equipment applications. The USEPA is also proposing an option that allows manufacturers to certify engines greater than 19 kilowatts and less than or equal to one liter in displacement to the small engine Phase 2 standards.

The USEPA amended its wastewater pretreatment regulations four times during that period (see 63 Fed. Reg. 39443 (July 22, 1998); 63 Fed. Reg. 42238 (August 7, 1998); 63 Fed. Reg. 50388 (September 21, 1998); and 63 Fed. Reg. 64417 (November 20, 1998)). The amendments incorporate all of these actions except the August 7, 1998 action, which the Board previously incorporated in its prior wastewater pretreatment update docket, In the Matter of: Wastewater Pretreatment Update, USEPA Regulations (January 1, 1998, through June 31, 1998) (March 18, 1999), R99-4. Although not enacted within this docket's stated time period, the Board also incorporated federal actions promulgated on March 4, 1999 and March 16, 1999 (see 64 Fed. Reg. 10391 (March 4, 1999) and 64 Fed. Reg. 13053 (March 16, 1999)). The March 4, 1999 action corrected errors contained in the September 21, 1998 federal action and the March 16, 1999 action corrected errors contained in the September 21, 1998 federal action and the March 16, 1999 action corrects one typographical error in the March 4, 1999 corrective action.

The amendments incorporate changes to the pretreatment standards and new source performance standards for the organic pesticide chemicals manufacturing industry. The new standards increase the daily maximum and monthly average emission levels of the pesticide active ingredient (PAI), pendimethalin, based on actual industry monitoring data of the effluent concentration of PAIs in wastewaters treated by full-scale treatment systems. The amendments also limit the discharge of pollutants into publicly owned treatment works (POTWs) by existing and new pharmaceutical manufacturing facilities. The amendments revise the limitations and standards for the "Fermentation," "Extraction," "Chemical Synthesis," and "Mixing, Compounding, and Formulating" sub-categories and also eliminates the "Research" sub-category for existing and new sources. In addition, the amendments revise the effluent limitation guidelines for the best practicable control technology currently available for the "Rain Mills Point Source" category. Finally, the amendments correct typographical errors and errors in rounding of several numerical limitations, which were adopted in the September 21, 1998 federal action.

The Board adopted a proposal for public comment in this matter on April 15, 1999. See 23 Ill. Reg. 5446 (May 7, 1999). No public comments were filed, so that the final rules adopted by the Board on July 8, 1999, were virtually identical to those proposed.

Board Adopts Amendments in Identical-in-Substance Rulemaking in In the Matter of SDWA Update, USEPA Regulations (July 1, 1998, through December 31, 1998), R99-12

On July 22, 1999, the Board adopted amendments to the Illinois regulations that are “identical-in-substance” to the National Primary Drinking Water regulations (NPDWRs) adopted by the United States Environmental Protection Agency (USEPA). The regulations implement Sections 1412(b), 1414(c), 1417(a), and 1445(a) of the Safe Drinking Water Act (SDWA) (42 U.S.C. §§ 300g-1(b), 300g-3(c), 300g-6(a), 300j-4(a)). The amendments include SDWA amendments that the USEPA adopted in the period from July 1, 1998, through December 31, 1998. The USEPA took four actions during this period that necessitated Board action (see 63 Fed. Reg. 43833 (August 14, 1998); 63 Fed. Reg. 44511 (August 19, 1998); 63 Fed. Reg. 69390 (December 16, 1998); and 63 Fed. Reg. 69477 (December 16, 1998)). The Board also identified one USEPA action since December 31, 1998, that further amended the NPDWRs (see 64 Fed. Reg. 34732 (June 29, 1999)) and two other pending USEPA corrective actions that are included in the final rules adopted by the Board on July 22, 1999. The federal SDWA regulations are found at 40 C.F.R. §§ 141 and 142.

The amendments include major revisions to the program for relief from NPDWRs, including additional mandatory requirements for, among other things, small system variances; introduction of entirely new requirements for consumer confidence reports, including expansive public notification requirements about potential health threats; adoption of new maximum contaminant levels to be phased in for disinfection and disinfectant byproducts; and addition of interim enhanced surface water treatment rules to improve control of microbiological pathogens while addressing risk trade-offs with disinfection byproducts.

Section 17.5 of the Environmental Protection Act (Act) (415 ILCS 5/17.5 (1998)) provides for quick adoption of regulations that are “identical-in-substance” to federal regulations that the USEPA adopts to implement Sections 1412(b), 1414(c), 1417(a), and 1445(a) of the SDWA (42 U.S.C. §§ 300g-1(b), 300g-3(c), 300g-6(a), 300j-4(a)). Section 17.5 also provides that Title VII of the Act and Section 5 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 ILCS 100/5-35, 5-40 (1998)) do not apply to the Board’s adoption of identical-in-substance regulations. Therefore, the amendments were not subject to first and second-notice review by the Joint Committee on Administrative Rules.

On May 6, 1999, the Board adopted the proposed amendments for public comment and publication in the Illinois Register (23 Ill. Reg. 6217 (May 28, 1999)).

Four comments were filed with the Board during the 45-day public comment period. With the exception of minor editorial corrections, no substantial changes were made to the final text of the amendments.

Questions regarding this rulemaking may be directed to Steven C. Langhoff at 217/782-2615; e-mail address: slanghoff@pcb084rl.state.il.us
