MEMORANDUM

DATE: January 28, 2004
TO: Land Division File
FROM: ck Charlie King, DLPC/FOS – Springfield Region
SUBJECT: LPC # 0838055001 – Jersey County
Otter Creek Twp./Bell
C-04-044-C
FOS File

NARRATIVE INSPECTION REPORT DOCUMENT

The purpose of this memorandum is to serve as the Narrative Inspection Report Document of an inspection conducted at the subject site on January 21, 2004 from approximately 9:00 a.m. until 10:00 a.m., by this author. Bruce Rodely, DWPC/FOS – Springfield Region, accompanied me on this inspection. Mr. Rodely is the agricultural inspector for the Springfield Regional Office. The inspection was conducted to investigate a complaint received at the Springfield Regional Office. The complainant alleged that white goods, tires and an old vehicle were dumped in a ravine that a creek runs through, near Grafton. The complainant further stated that the owner had hogs on the property and recently got rid of them. The complainant was concerned with water quality issues with the mixture of open dumping, tires and swine manure. It was determined that a multi-media inspection should be conducted, where Mr. Rodely would evaluate impact of any agricultural waste and this inspector would evaluate impact of any non-agricultural open dumped waste at the site. As shown in this report, evidence of open dumping and open burning was found at the site. However, no agricultural wastes were found. Therefore, a multi-media report will not be generated. The owner of the property has received a Violation Notice (VN) for this site in the past under a separate complaint (VN, L-1998-01399). The site was subsequently cleaned up.

The site is located at the address of R. R. # 1, Box 72, 18781 Power Line Road, Grafton, IL 62037. The legal and specific location was presented in this author's Narrative Inspection Report Document Memorandum to the Land Division File, dated October 8, 1998, and therefore, will not be repeated here. The owner of the site is Roy Bell, R. R. # 1, Grafton, IL 62037. His telephone number is: 618/786-3569. Although the Warranty Deed for the site shows a Ruby Bell as a co-owner, she told me in-person, during the site inspection of December 1, 1998, under the previous complaint, that she and Roy Bell were divorced, that she had signed a Quit Claim Deed, and that she was no longer a property owner of the site. The tenants that live at the site are Tom and Dianna Joseph. They have no telephone. Both the owner and the tenants are considered respondents.

Upon arrival at the site on January 21, 2004, the weather was cool and partly cloudy. The air temperature was approximately 25° F. Winds were northwesterly at approximately 10 mph. Surface soil conditions were mostly dry.

Photographs discussed herein were taken with a digital camera. The photos show the conditions at the site on the day of the inspection. From the inspection and the photographs, a Site Sketch was developed. It shows the general layout of the site, as well as the approximate locations and directions of the inspection photos. The digital camera assigns a three-digit number to each photograph, i.e., 001, 002, etc. This is how the photos are referred to in this inspection report and on the Digital Photographs. However, to save space on the sketch, real numbers are used, i.e., 1, 2, etc. Copies of the Digital Photographs and the Site Sketch accompany this report.

Upon arrival at the site on January 21, 2004, Mr. Rodely and I went to the doublewide mobile home on-site and I knocked on the door. A young man in his late teens or early twenties answered the door. I identified Mr. Rodely and myself and the purpose of the visit. Upon inquiry, he stated that his name was Chris Joseph, and that he was the son of tenants Tom and Dianna Joseph. I gave him two business cards, one for his parents and one that I asked him to have his parents give to Mr. Bell. I asked him permission to inspect the complaint and he granted us permission to do so. He further told us that he was not aware of any livestock at the site.

It was obvious from the time of arrival that there was litter scattered about the site. The mobile home has a relatively flat area in front of it where several cars could park. Powerline Road borders the property to the north. Just beyond the parking area to the east and south, there is an abrupt drop of a steep ravine slope that is approximately 40' to the bottom. There is a gentle but steady down slope behind the house that blends into a wooded area. It is not certain whether that part of the woods around the site is part of the property or not. Regardless, continuing into the woods 50' or so, there is another abrupt drop of approximately 80' into another ravine.

On the flat area in front and to the south of the property, areas of burned wastes were observed. We looked at these areas first. Two small mounds of burned waste, measuring approximately 6' x 5' x 3' high, were observed first. Small bits of plastics and metals were observed in the piles. Another relatively flat area of burned waste was observed next. It measured approximately 6' x 3' x 1' high. These areas of waste are shown in photo #s 001 and 003. Note that estimated height measurements of one foot (1'), means any measurement up to a foot in height. Looking over the abrupt drop of approximately 40', more wastes could be seen on the ravine wall and at the bottom of the ravine, as shown in photo # 002. Burned wastes, general household refuse, plastics and wood were observed there. Back on the flat surface in front of the mobile home, rolled carpet, burned waste mounds measuring approximately 6' x 5' x 3' and 3' x 2' x 1', and bags of general household refuse in an area measuring approximately 15' x 5' x 1', were observed, as shown in photo # 004.

Mr. Rodely and I then walked around the truck shown in photo # 004 and went down what appeared to be the easiest access route to the bottom of the ravine, just east and southeast of the flat area in front of the mobile home. General household refuse, some burned, and demolition wastes were observed on the steep ravine wall, as shown in photo #s 005 and 006. Walking in an arc back towards the south and southwest, plastics, concrete slabs and asphalt chunks were observed in the ravine, as shown in photo #s 007 and 008. Walking further along the bottom of the southern ravine, we encountered roofing shingles and more small various pieces of litter along the sidewall of the ravine, as shown in photo # 009.

We walked up out of the southern ravine and observed yet two more open dump and open burn piles. These measured approximately 6' x 6' x 1' and 3' x 3' x 1' respectively. We also observed approximately 50 waste tires on-site, approximately 40 of them just behind the house. These wastes can be seen in photo # 010. Together, these open burn piles had plastics, cans, general household refuse, bedsprings, wood, boots, glass and clothing.

We walked into the edge of the wooded area and came close to the steep 80' ravine drop. We observed a mattress as shown in photo # 011, a stove as shown in photo # 012, and in the distance, off-site, a collection of rusted white goods that were approximately 350' away, as shown in photo # 013.

During the inspection, apparent violations of the Illinois Environmental Protection Act (Act) and the regulations, Title 35, Illinois Administrative Code, Subtitle G (35 IAC), were observed. Apparent violations of the Act include Sections: 9(a), 9(c), 21(a), 21(d)(1), 21(d)(2), 21(e), 21(p)(1), 21(p)(3), 21(p)(7)(i) and 55(a)(1). An apparent violation of the regulations, 35 IAC, was Section: 812.101(a).

OTHER COMMENTS

1. The complaint under Complaint # C-99-006-C, that resulted in Violation Notice, L-1998-01399 and L-1998-01400, was resolved via cleanup efforts that resulted in a re-inspection and delivery of receipts documenting cleanup, both on December 1, 1998. The new complaint, C-04-044-C involves renewed open dumping and open burning with the same property owner, but new tenants.
2. Although Chris Joseph was given two business cards to pass on to his parents, Tom and Dianna Joseph, and to their landlord, Roy Bell, neither of these parties have contacted this inspector as of the date of this memorandum.
