I, Desmond Jarvis am writing this email in response to the packet I received in late November "Deem facts admitted".

I admit fault for the first round of violations. That being said, I was given two weeks from the date of said violations to clean up the property and provide proof of said clean up (which I did)! I sent pictures of the clean up process as well as pictures of the receipts (which is exactly what I was told to do).

Approximately, two months after I cleaned up the property, I moved out of that house as I bought my own. I admit no fault for the second round of violations on Robert weitholders property as I cannot control what other people do.

I was not aware in the beginning that I needed a permit to do "junking"! I was not aware in the beginning that It is illegal to burn bed bug infested furniture. I am fully aware now and I stopped "junking" immediately after the first round of violations and clean up.

Thank you
