ANSWER TO COMPLAINT

NOW COMES the Respondent, JAMES ZELLER, by and through his attorney Armstrong & Green and with respect to the Complaint of the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency states as follows:

COUNT 1

1. ADMIT
2. ADMIT
3. DENY
4. DENY
5. ADMIT
6. ADMIT
7. DENY
8. This Respondent admits that on or before April 2, 2003, Mathew Short's business employed heavy equipment to demolish the building and to remove siding from the building. As to the remaining portions of paragraph eight (8) this Respondent does not know and can neither admit nor deny.
9. This Respondent admits that Mathew Short's business ceased demolition activities on an actual date unknown to this Respondent. That Thomas Zeller resumed demolition activities and Thomas Zeller's business employed heavy equipment to demolish the building and to remove the siding from the building.

10. ADMIT, except this Respondent neither can admit nor deny whether the EPA attempted to contact him specifically as he has no knowledge of same.
11. ADMIT
12. ADMIT
13. DENY, while this Respondent admits the allegations containing these statements with respect to the Statutory Regulations with respect to National Emissions Standards for Hazardous Air-Pollutants, but also states that the asbestos located on the alleged property was non-friable at the time that it was attached to the building in question.
14. As to the remaining portions of paragraph fourteen (14) this Respondent admits.
15. Subparts A and B: ADMIT
16. DENY
17. This Respondent can neither admit nor deny for want of knowledge.
18. This paragraph is a conclusion with respect to a statutory requirement of notification. In response to this paragraph this Respondent states that he is not an operator or owner of demolition as defined by the Statutes, and as such denies the implacability of paragraph eighteen (18) as to him.

WHEREFORE this Respondent respectfully pray that the matter be dismissed.

COUNT 2

- 1-16 This Respondent repeats and re-alleges his response to paragraphs one (1) through sixteen (16) of COUNT 1 as and for his response to paragraphs one (1) through sixteen (16) of COUNT 2.

17. This Respondent can neither admit nor deny this allegation for want of knowledge.
18. This Respondent does not respond to paragraph eighteen (18), as there is no paragraph eighteen (18) of COUNT 2 but the COUNT proceeds to paragraph nineteen (19).
- 19-21 It isn't clear to this Respondent as to whether this COUNT is directed to him, but as such states that he has no knowledge with respect to these paragraphs specifically and can neither admit nor deny them.

To the extent that this COUNT seeks any relief against James Zeller, individually states that this COUNT should not be directed toward him and respectfully pray that this COUNT be dismissed as to him.

Respectfully Submitted,
James Zeller, Respondent
