ORDER OF THE BOARD (by J. Theodore Meyer):

This case is before the Board on a March 23, 1993 motion to reconsider, filed by respondent Kibler Development Corporation (Kibler). Kibler seeks reconsideration of the Board's February 25, 1993 order denying its motion to dismiss the petition for review. Petitioners Concerned Citizens of Williamson County, and R.S. Blakely and Max Stucker, as individual members of Concerned Citizens of Williamson County (collectively, Citizens), filed a response in opposition on April 2, 1993.

Kibler asks that the Board reconsider its previous order denying its motion to dismiss Citizens' petition for review. The Board denied that motion because the record in this proceeding had not yet been filed, so that there was no way to review Kibler's contention that the alleged flaws raised by Citizens were belied by the record. In the instant motion to reconsider, Kibler notes that the record has now been filed and can be "readily examined" to determine whether the original motion to dismiss has merit.¹

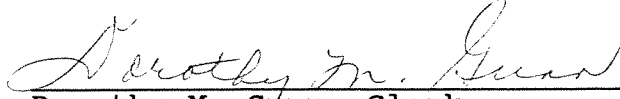

The motion to reconsider is denied. Kibler has not cited to any specific pages of the record in support of its contentions. The Board will not search the record in order to support a movant's contentions.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

I, Dorothy M. Gunn, Clerk of the Illinois Pollution Control Board, hereby certify that the above order was adopted on the 8th day of April, 1993, by a vote of 6-0.
