DISSENTING OPINION (by B. Forcade):

I respectfully dissent from today's action based on reasoning more fully explained in my dissent in The Grigoleit Company, v. IEPA, PCB 89-184 (November 29, 1990). I do not believe extension of the doctrine of Wells Manufacturing Co., v. IEPA, 195 Ill. App. 3d 593, 552 N.E.2d 1074 (1st Dist. 1990) is warranted beyond denials for claimed statutory violations relating to "unreasonable interference". Here, Douglas had actual knowledge of the Agency's assertions of a claimed failure to meet emissions standards by no less than five letters and meetings between November 24, 1987, and May 10, 1988.
