Subject: RE: Docket item R22-18

Good morning, Toby,

Thank you for your message.

For a meeting to discuss this, we suggest IEPA rather than the Board.

But please note that the Board is accepting written public comment in R22-18 through Monday, November 18. So, there is still time for anyone, including JCAR, to file a public comment with the Board.

Thanks, again.

Best regards,

Richard

Subject: [External] Docket item R22-18

Good morning, Richard:

JCAR is receiving public comment objecting to the absence of economic reasonableness analysis for the mentioned docket item. I understand the Board's position is that "compliance [with these standards] and any potential remediation will be addressed under specific programs" and that IEPA holds that economic reasonableness must be assessed on a per-program basis. Would like to meet briefly to discuss this further. Should we be talking principally to PCB or to EPA on this?

Best,
