RULEMAKING UPDATE

NEW SOURCE REVIEW CAA RULES PROPOSED FOR FIRST NOTICE, R92-21

On November 19, 1992, the Board adopted a Clean Air Act rulemaking proposal for First Notice publication in the Illinois Register. The proposal addresses construction and operation permitting for new or modified major stationary sources in nonattainment areas. The proposal represents one segment of Illinois' ultimate submittal of a complete State Implementation Plan (SIP) to the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency. Pursuant to Section 182(a) of the Clean Air Act, as amended in 1990, Illinois was to have adopted and submit its plan by November 15, 1992.

The Agency filed the proposal on November 13, 1992, pursuant to newly-adopted Section 28.5 of the Act. (P.A. 87-1213, effective September 26, 1992.) The Board accepted it for hearing. Pursuant to Section 28.5, the Board was required to proceed within set time-frames toward the adoption of this regulation. The Board lacks any discretion to adjust these time-frames under any circumstances. For this reason, the hearing schedule is not subject to modification, except as provided by Section 28.5. The Board will accept public comments on the proposal. Address comments to Dorothy Gunn, Clerk, Illinois Pollution Control Board, 100 W. Randolph, Chicago, Illinois, 60601. Serve copies on all persons listed on the service list, available from the same address.

Three public hearings are scheduled as follows:

Wednesday, January 6, 1993
Tuesday, February 5, 1993
Friday, February 19, 1993
10:00 a.m.
State of Illinois Building
Room C-500
160 North LaSalle Street
Chicago, Illinois

Those interested in participating should contact the hearing officer. Address questions to Hearing Officer Marie E. Tipsord, at (312) 814-4925. (Please refer to docket R92-21.)

PROPOSED RCRA RULES REVISED IN RESPONSE TO USEPA CORRECTION, R92-10

On November 19, 1992, the Board entered an order noting that USEPA had already repealed a subsection which the Board had proposed to adopt in this RCRA update R92-10. The Board adopted a proposed opinion and order in this RCRA update docket on October 16, 1992. The proposal included a new April 28, 1993 "sunset provision" for the "mixture and derived from" rules. This was derived from a corresponding USEPA rule added March 3 and June 1, 1992 and repealed on October 30, 1992. The Board decided to withdraw the proposed sunset provision without delay. If the Board were to adopt the provision in this docket and wait until the next RCRA update docket to repeal it, a major difference between the USEPA and Illinois rules would result during the interim. The public comment period for docket R92-10 ends December 21, 1992. Address comments to Dorothy Gunn, Clerk, Illinois Pollution Control Board, 100 W. Randolph, Chicago, Illinois, 60601. Direct questions to Morton F. Dorothy, at 217-333-5575. (Refer to docket R92-10.)

SDWA UPDATE & CORRECTIONS ADOPTED, R92-9/R91-3

On November 3, 1992, the Board adopted amendments to the state SDWA regulations. These rules incorporate the federal Phase II amendments and corrections to the Phase I rules. The amended drinking water rules add three microbiological test methods and several new maximum contaminant levels for inorganic and organic chemical contaminants, along with monitoring requirements necessary to demonstrate compliance. The primary federal amendments involved in this docket occurred in January and July, 1991; amendments occurring in January and June, 1992 were included in response to public comments.

The adopted rules differ from those proposed last March as a result of the public comments received. Several modifications were to make the rules follow the federal text more closely. Others included later federal amendments that affected the same provisions. Another major group of revisions addressed USEPA comments regarding the Phase I rules adopted by the Board in August, 1990, in order to maintain state primacy in the drinking water program. USEPA had imposed a December deadline on the Phase I corrections, so the Board acted on these together with docket R91-3 without proceeding separately with a proposal for public comment. Direct questions to Michael J. McCambridge, at 312-814-6924. (Please refer to docket R92-9/R91-3.)

RECYCLED PAPER FILING REQUIREMENTS AMENDED, R92-7

On October 29, 1992, the Board amended the procedural rule that requires all filings before the Board to be made on recycled paper. Since the Board originally adopted the requirement in November, 1991, the General Assembly amended the statutory definition of recycled paper. In May, Business and Professional People for the Public Interest petitioned the Board to make technical amendments to the recycled paper rule to reflect the statutory change. The procedural rules now include new definitions of "deinked stock", "postconsumer material", and "recovered paper material" based on P.A. 87-485. Whereas the former rule required filings on paper containing "40% postconsumer material", it now requires filings on "50% recovered paper" that contains "at least 20% deinked stock or postconsumer material". Beginning July 1, 1994, the deinked stock or postconsumer material content requirement increases to 25 percent. It subsequently increases to 30 percent in 1996, 40 percent in 1998, and 45 percent in 2000. Address questions to Elizabeth Harvey, at 312-814-6921. (Please refer to docket R92-7.)

CLEAN AIR ACT RULEMAKING PROCEDURES CLARIFIED BY RESOLUTION, RES 92-2

On October 29, 1992, the Board adopted a resolution intended to clarify the procedures in Section 28.5 Clean Air Act rulemaking proceedings. The General Assembly amended the Environmental Protection Act by P.A. 87-1213, effective September 26, 1992. It sets up fast-track procedures for the Board to employ in rulemakings initiated with an Agency proposal for rules required by the federal Clean Air Act Amendments of 1990. Among other requirements, Section 28.5 circumscribes the Board's discretion in the initial phase of the rulemaking process and sets forth very tight time-frames within which the Board must publish an Agency proposal for First Notice and conduct public hearings on the proposed rules. However, the Board found that various portions of Section 28.5 were subject to interpretation. The resolution touches on such matters as the consideration the Board will give to Agency proposals as they are filed and the scheduling and conduct of hearings. It sets forth the Board's interpretations of segments of subsections (e), (f), and (g) of New Section 28.5. Direct questions to Elizabeth Harvey, at 312-814-6924. (Please refer to RES 92-2.)

APPELLATE UPDATE

BOARD DECISION IN PCB 91-138 UPHELD BY THE FIRST DISTRICT

On October 30, 1992, in Kronon Motor Sales, Inc. v. EPA (1st Dist. Oct. 30, 1992), No. 1-92-1032 (unpublished opinion; review of PCB 91-138), the appellate court upheld the Board's denial of reimbursement from the Leaking Underground Storage Tank Fund. The remedial action had occurred prior to notification of the Illinois Emergency Services and Disaster Agency. The court held that it must accord deference to the Board's decision. Since the Board's interpretation of its rules was not unreasonable or erroneous, the court upheld the Board's decision.

BOARD DECISION IN ENFORCEMENT CASE PCB 89-61 UPHELD BY THE THIRD DISTRICT

In Village of Beecher v. Fredette (3d Dist. Oct. 31, 1992), No. 3-91-0153 (unpublished opinion; review of PCB 91-68), the court of appeals affirmed the Board's imposition of penalties against the Village for water pollution control violations. The Board had denied the Village's motion to dismiss the citizen's complaint as "duplicitous" because the Agency was independently taking enforcement action at the same time. The Board entered a default judgment against the Village in March, 1990 for its failure to comply with hearing officer discovery orders. In July, 1990, the Agency filed an independent enforcement complaint in the circuit court for Will County. The Board ordered the Village to cease and desist from further violations and imposed a $10,400 penalty after a evidentiary hearing. The court found that the citizen's complaint involved a substantial number of different violations from those contained in the Agency's complaint, so the Board properly denied dismissal. The court further held that the Board had properly considered the statutory factors in imposing the penalty and that penalty was not unreasonable as it was supported by substantial evidence in the record.

BOARD DECISION IN PCB 90-231 REVERSED BY THE FIFTH DISTRICT

On October 16, 1992, in Bishop v. PCB (5th Dist. Oct. 16, 1992), -- Ill. App. 3d --, 601 N.E.2d 310, the appellate court for the Fifth District reversed the Board's decision denying siting approval to Robert and Amanda Bishop. The Board had reversed the siting approval granted by the Montgomery County Board because the petitioner had failed to provide notice to the persons listed on the "authentic tax records". The Board had interpreted "authentic tax records" as including all three sets of records kept in the treasurer's office, the clerk's office and the supervisor of assessment's office in Montgomery County. The court reversed the Board stating that the "authentic tax records" included the records in the treasurer's office and therefore the notice sent by the Bishops was sufficient.

EXHAUSTION DOCTRINE DOES NOT BAR STATE'S FILING IN CIRCUIT COURTS

On October 1, 1992, the Illinois Supreme Court held that the doctrine of exhaustion of remedies does not preclude the state's attorneys and the Attorney General from filing complaints for cost recovery under Section 22.2 of the Act. In People v. NL Industries, Nos. 72461 & 72505 (consolidated), the Cook County State's Attorney had filed an action to seek the costs of remedial action undertaken at a site currently or formerly owned and operated by the various respondents. The Cook County circuit court granted the respondents' motion to dismiss on the basis that the State had failed to exhaust its administrative remedies when it failed to file an action for cost recovery with the Board. On appeal, the First District appellate court affirmed the circuit court's decision. People v. NL Industries (1991), 218 Ill. App. 3d 300, 578 N.E.2d 237.

The Illinois Supreme Court reversed, in an opinion not yet released. It held that the State need not have filed its cost recovery action with the Board before pursuing it in the circuit court. Further, the judgment of the circuit court unduly limited the Attorney General's authority to seek remedies for environmental harms. On the issue of circuit court jurisdiction, the Supreme Court found that although the Act provided for Board jurisdiction to hear cost recovery actions filed by the State, no language precluded filing in the circuit courts; nor did the statute vest exclusive jurisdiction in the Board. In the opinion of the Court, certain provisions actually presumed circuit court jurisdiction. With regard to the authority of the Attorney general to file such an action, the Court opined that where a statute does not specifically provide who may file, the Attorney General must be recognized as allowed to do so, as the chief legal officer of the State.

In its analysis, the Court drew a distinction between the doctrine of original jurisdiction and the doctrine of exhaustion of remedies, which it said were often confused. It said that under original jurisdiction, the court and an administrative agency have concurrent jurisdiction to hear a matter. Thus, a court may choose to stay proceedings pending disposition in the administrative forum, in order to take advantage of the technical expertise of the agency. In the opinion of the Court, exhaustion of administrative remedies applies where the administrative agency has exclusive jurisdiction over a matter. It requires the court to dismiss an action unless it has exhausted all avenues for administrative remedies provided by statute. Since the Board and the circuit courts had concurrent jurisdiction, the circuit court erred by holding that it lacked jurisdiction because the State's Attorney had failed to exhaust its administrative remedies.

RESTRICTED STATUS AND CRITICAL REVIEW LISTS FOR SEWAGE TREATMENT IN THIS ISSUE

The Illinois Environmental Protection Agency, Division of Water Pollution Control, is publishing copies of the Division's Restricted Status and Critical Review lists at the end of this issue of the Environmental Register. These lists reflect the status as of November 1, 1992.

BOARD INITIATES ELECTRONIC BULLETIN BOARD (BBS) SERVICE

The Pollution Control Board is happy to announce the beginning of its electronic BBS service. The Board's BBS is available to any person having access to a computer and a modem. It is a first step towards filling a need to better communicate with the public regarding Board operations. It will also help the public track developments in matters before the Board.

Information on the BBS may be read on-line or may be downloaded onto your computer for later reference. Downloading will generally save money on your phone bill. In addition, all current BBS files can be obtained in hard copy form from the Board's Chicago office. At present, the Board's BBS contains the following:

1. The latest Board meeting agenda. This will enable anyone in the State to determine which matters are scheduled for discussion or decision at the next Board meeting (please note that matters scheduled for decision may be deferred at the last moment). Agendas are typically updated three or more times prior to each Board meeting.
2. The latest Environmental Register. The Register includes a current listing of Board activities, recent decisions, scheduled hearings and new cases.
3. The latest Annual Report. This includes useful information regarding the Board, including operating statistics, relevant court cases, future plans and trends.
4. An introduction to the workings of the Board. This brief overview of Board functions, publications and other data is particularly designed to acquaint the newcomer to the operations of the Board.

The Board hopes to improve and perhaps expand the services offered on its BBS as time and resources permit. It seeks your help. Please take the time to log on and experiment with the system; let us know (by mail or through one of the BBS "Conferences") of any problems you encounter and any improvements you suggest. There is only one line in to the BBS, so if you get a busy signal, call back later. The BBS is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

The Board's BBS can be reached by modem only at 312-814-1590. The best communications settings are 8 data bits, no parity, and 1 stop bit (i.e., 8-N-1). The best terminal emulation is ANSI-BBS or just ANSI. The BBS utilizes a 2400 baud modem. For access, dial 312-814-1590. For additional information, contact Bill Forcade, at 312-814-3620.

BOARD ESTABLISHES CLEAN AIR ACT RULEMAKING MASTER LIST

As noted above, the legislature recently added new fast-track Clean Air Act Amendment (CAAA) rulemaking procedures to the Environmental Protection Act, at Section 28.5. (P.A. 87-1213, effective September 26, 1992.) These fast-track procedures establish specific, and very tight, deadlines for action on CAAA rulemaking proposals filed with the Board by the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency. One of those deadlines requires the Board, within 14 days of receipt of a proposal, to file a proposed rule for first notice, schedule all hearings, and cause public notice to be given. So that the Board will be prepared to send its first notice opinion and order to all those who might be interested in a specific proceeding, the Board is now establishing a CAAA "master list". As discussed in RES 92-2, this master list, along with any additional names provided by the Agency from their outreach list for a specific proposal, will serve as the initial notice list for mailing the Board's first notice opinion and order and hearing notice. This first mailing will also include a coupon requiring those who want to continue to be included on the notice list for that individual proposal to return the coupon to the Board within a specified time.

Those interested in CAAA rulemakings should return the coupon below for inclusion on the CAAA master list. The Board asks that only one individual from each firm or organization be included on the master list.
