STATE OF ILLINOIS
Pollution Control Board

WASTE MANAGEMENT OF ILLINOIS, INC.'S OBJECTION TO MICHAEL WATSON'S MOTION TO INTERVENE

Waste Management of Illinois, Inc. ("WMII"), by and through its attorneys, Pedersen & Houpt, P.C. objects to Michael Watson's ("Watson") Motion to Intervene. In support thereof, WMII states as follows:

1. On April 21, 2004, WMII filed with the Illinois Pollution Control Board ("Board") its Petition for Hearing to Contest Site Location Denial ("Petition for Review") pursuant to Section 40.1(a) of the Illinois Environmental Protection Act ("Act").
2. The Petition for Review contests and objects to the County Board of Kankakee County's ("County Board") decision denying WMII's request for site location approval of the expansion of the Kankakee Landfill on the grounds that (i) the siting process and procedures used in reaching the decision were fundamentally unfair; and (ii) the denial of site location approval, and the finding that certain statutory criteria were not met, were against the manifest weight of the evidence.

3. On June 22, 2004, Watson filed a Motion to Intervene seeking (i) "to gather, respond to and present evidence related to the issues being raised by WMII ..."; (ii) to seek discovery that is not sought by Kankakee County; and (iii) to make legal arguments not raised by Kankakee County. (See Watson Motion to Intervene, ¶¶4, 10).

4. For the reasons discussed below, Watson's Motion to Intervene should be denied.

5. Permitting third party objectors to intervene in the appeal of a decision denying local siting approval would run counter to the provisions of the Act, as well as the Board's Procedural Rules ("Rules"), governing the appeal process. Section 40.1 of the Act and Section 107.200(a) of the Rules allow the applicant to appeal a decision denying local siting approval of a pollution control facility. See 415 ILCS 5/40.1(a) (2002); 35 Ill. Adm. Code 107.200 (2002). A third party may only appeal a decision granting local siting approval. See 415 ILCS 5/40.1(b); 35 Ill. Adm. Code 107.200(b)

6. Illinois courts have interpreted Section 40.1 of the Act to preclude third parties from seeking review of a decision denying siting for a facility. Waste Management of Illinois Inc. v. Illinois Pollution Control Board, 160 Ill. App. 3d 434, 443-44, 513 N.E. 2d 592, 598 (2d Dist. 1987); McHenry County Landfill, Inc. v Environmental Protection Agency, 154 Ill. App. 3d 89, 94-95, 506 N.E.2d 372, 376 (2d Dist. 1987). The Board, in turn, has held that allowing third parties to intervene in appeals would be, in effect, granting applicant status to someone who does not fall within the parameters of Section 40.1(a). Land & Lakes, Co. v. Randolph County Board of Commissioners, No. PCB 99-69, slip op. at p. 1-2 (March 18, 1999); Land and Lakes Company v. Village of Romeoville, No. PCB 94-195, slip op. at p. 4-5 (September 1, 1994).

7. Third party objectors are precluded from intervention in an appeal from a denial of a siting approval. Rochelle Waste Disposal v. City Council of the City of Rochelle, Illinois, No. PCB 03-218, slip op. at 2 (July 10, 2003); Waste Management of Illinois, Inc. v. County Board of Kane County, Illinois, No. PCB 03-104, slip op. at 2 (February 20, 2003). The only intervention allowed in the appeal of a siting denial is by a state's attorney or the Attorney General representing the public interest. Rochelle Waste Disposal, slip op. at 2.

8. Watson contends that he should be allowed to intervene because he is an adjacent property owner whose property rights will be directly and adversely impacted by the proceeding. (Motion to Intervene, ¶¶6, 9, 10, 12.) His contention is meritless. Neither the Act nor the cases construing it allow an adjacent property owner to appeal from a denial of a local siting request. 415 ILCS 5/40.1; Rochelle Waste Disposal, slip op. at 2; Kane County, slip op. at 2. Moreover, the motions to intervene denied in Rochelle Waste Disposal and Kane County were made by objectors who alleged a direct and adverse effect by a grant of siting approval, as Watson has done here. Such allegations do not confer the right to appeal or intervene. See 415 ILCS 5/40.1; Lowe Transfer, Inc. v. County Board of McHenry County, Illinois, No. PCB 03-221, slip op. at 1 (July 10, 2003); Rochelle Waste Disposal, slip op. at 2; Kane County, slip op. at 2.

9. Finally, the Village has failed to state sufficient grounds warranting intervention under Section 101.402 of the Board's Procedural Rules. Subsection (d) of Section 101.402, provides that, subject to Section 101.402(b), the Board may permit a person to intervene in an adjudicatory proceeding if the person: (1) has a conditional statutory right to intervene in the proceeding; (2) may be materially prejudiced absent intervention; or (3) is so situated that the person may be adversely affected by a final Board order. 35 Ill. Adm. Code 101.402(d). Watson claims that he may be adversely affected by a final Board order. (See Motion to Intervene, ¶9). However, Watson has not provided anything more than a conclusory statement to support his position that he will be adversely affected by a grant of siting approval. The Board has held that simplistic statements of adverse effects and material prejudice unsupported by facts will not make a case for intervention. Stuart v. Fisher, No. PCB 02-162, slip op. at p. 1-2 (January 23, 2003); 2222 Elston LLC v. Purex Industries, Inc., No. PCB 03-55, slip op. at p. 2-4 (January 23, 2003).

10. Watson also claims that intervention is needed so that he can argue points of law that the County Board may not raise. (See Motion to Intervene, ¶10). However, the Board has held that it is insufficient to base intervention on the belief that the respondent will not adequately represent the concerns of third parties. See Alloy Engineering & Casting Co., slip op. at p. 5-6.

WHEREFORE, Waste Management of Illinois, Inc. respectfully requests that the Pollution Control Board enter an order denying Michael Watson's Motion to Intervene, and for such other and further relief as the Board deems appropriate.

Respectfully Submitted,
Waste Management of Illinois, Inc.
