ERRATA SHEET OF THE ILLINOIS ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY

NOW COMES the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency ("Illinois EPA"), by and through its attorney Kyle Rominger, and submits this errata sheet in the above referenced proceeding. The following are suggested changes to the rules printed in the Board's Order for First Notice dated November 4, 2004.

1. Due to the addition of Section 703.123(h)(5), in the first sentence of Section 703.123(h) the Illinois EPA proposed changing the reference to subsection "(h)(4)" to "(h)(5)". This change proved easy to overlook due to the masking of the strikethrough line by the cross line in the number "4". In the Board's Second Notice the Illinois EPA suggests proposing the change as follows so it more easily catches the reader's eye.

h) A universal waste handler or universal waste transporter (as defined in 35 Ill. Adm. Code 720.110) that manages the wastes listed in subsections (h)(1) through ~~(h)(5)(h)(4)~~ of this Section. Such a handler or transporter is subject to regulation under 35 Ill. Adm. Code 733.

2. In Section 721.109, there is a comma missing in the citations listed in the first sentence. The first sentence should be amended as follows so there is a comma between "702" and "703":

The wastes listed in this Section are exempt from regulation under 35 Ill. Adm. Code 702, 703, 722 through 726, and 728, except as specified in 35

Ill. Adm. Code 733, and are therefore not fully regulated as hazardous waste.

3. The reference to Section 733.106 in proposed Section 725.101(c)(14)(E) includes "I." instead of "Ill." Proposed Section 725.101(c)(14)(E) should read as follows:

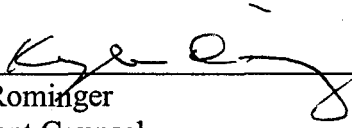

E) Mercury-containing equipment as described in 35 Ill. Adm. Code 733.106.

4. Section 728.101(a) is underlined, indicating that the Section is new. This Section should not be underlined. It is existing language and no changes to Section 728.101(a) are proposed.

The Illinois EPA apologizes for any inconvenience related to the above errata that it has caused.

Respectfully submitted,

ILLINOIS ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY

Assistant Counsel
