HEARING OFFICER ORDER

On July 13, 2004, the People and the attorney for respondents Leona Childress and William McCoy participated in a telephone status conference with the hearing officer. The remaining respondents did not appear.

Respondents Childress and McCoy have provided evidence that they were not involved in the alleged violations. The People plan to file a motion to dismiss these respondents. Within the next week, the People plan to file a motion for summary judgment against respondents Thomas Gray, Steve Whyte and Gladys Whyte. The People have not been able to reach them, and it is unlikely that they will file responses to the motions.

The parties are directed to participate in a telephone status conference with the hearing officer at 9:30 a.m. on September 14, 2004. The status conference shall be initiated by the People. At the status conference, the parties must be prepared to discuss the status of the above-captioned matter.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
