CATTLE FARM MANAGER
Farmway Farm, on the beautiful rolling hills of Monroe, Illinois, near Birdland, is a 60-year-old family-owned Angus commercial beef operation. We are seeking to progress ownership of livestock and land where we grow and raise our cattle genetics as well as pasture management and beef production quality cattle. They are located in our valley west of town, without utilities or government. Of our 1,500 acres, about 500 acres are in pasture use. We consist of 501 acres for new crops and the rest is woodlands and pasture. We have a large herd of cattle. We seek an experienced cattle professional as manager and grow this 225-head cow-calf operation and 120-head brood cow herd. The manager will be responsible for the day-to-day operation of the farm, including but not limited to: herd management, pasture improvement and maintenance, maintenance and repair of equipment, buildings and fences, computer record keeping and bill processing. Manager coordinates with real estate agent, oversees two part-time and commensates with hunting lease agent. Great opportunity for a networking college graduate with livestock management and technical experience. Salary range is $45,000-$55,000 depending on experience, plus health insurance and retirement. Send cover letter and resume to: Fletcher Frazier at frazier@farmway.com or 1001 N. Seventh St., Springfield, IL 62762. No phone calls please.
